Elegant Martini Kathleen D. Fish,1999-09 There was a time when elegant coupled with martini would have been redundant When anyone who knew how to make a martini was upper crust and anyone who knew how to swill a martini deserved one You had to be old enough successful enough and dashing enough to serve one pretty enough to accept it and sophisticated enough to consume it There was a look a pace a ritual and a message and anyone who was anyone knew it We like to pretend it was a simpler era when ladies sipped tea and dames swilled vodka Women threw more curves with their femininity than their feminism It was a period when men and women wore hats when a martini and a cigarette fit in one hand leaving the other one free for meaningful conversation Today the martini once again reigns as the social standard in supper clubs and martini bars across the country where the elite the not so elite and the don t care about elite meet to eat drink and greet
