Five Similarities Between Nsfas And Student Loans:

Fees Must Fall Susan Booysen, 2016-10-01 This book explores the student discontent a year after the start of the 2015 South African FeesMustFall revolt. FeesMustFall the student revolt that began in October 2015 was an uprising against lack of access to and financial exclusion from higher education in South Africa. More broadly it radically questioned the socio-political dispensation resulting from the 1994 social pact between big business, the ruling elite and the liberation movement. The 2015 revolt links to national and international youth struggles of the recent past and is informed by black consciousness politics and social movements of the international left. Yet its objectives are more complex than those of earlier struggles. The student movement has challenged the hierarchical top down leadership system of university management and its double speak of professing to act in workers and students interests yet entrenching a regressive system for control and governance. University managements while on one level amenable to change have also co-opted students into their ranks to create co-responsibility for the highly bureaucratised university financial aid that stands in the way of their social revolution. This book maps the contours of student discontent a year after the start of the FeesMustFall revolt. Student voices dissect colonialism, improper compromises by the founders of democratic South Africa, feminism, worker rights and meaningful education. In depth assessments by prominent scholars reflect on the complexities of student activism, its impact on national and university governance and offer provocative analyses of the power of the revolt. The Next Twenty-five Years David Lee Featherman, Marvin Krislov, Martin Hall, 2009-12-08 A penetrating exploration of affirmative action's continued place in 21st century higher education. The Next Twenty five Years assembles the viewpoints of some of the most influential scholars, educators, university leaders and public officials. Its comparative essays range the political spectrum and debates in two nations to survey the legal, political, social, economic and moral dimensions of affirmative action and its role in helping higher education contribute to a just, equitable and vital society. David L Featherman is Professor of Sociology and Psychology and Founding Director of the Center for Advancing Research and Solutions for Society at the University of Michigan. Martin Hall is Vice Chancellor of the University of Salford Greater Manchester and previously was Deputy Vice Chancellor at the University of Cape Town. Marvin Krislov is President of Oberlin College and previously was Vice President and General Counsel at the University of Michigan. Knowledge Beyond Colour Lines Monwabisi K. Ralarala, Salochana Lorraine Hassan, Rajani Naidoo, 2021-05-25 Knowledge remains timely in education. The need for academics to contemplate its relevance, worth, use and everything in between deems a continuous intellectual project rather than a conundrum to be solved. This book takes the South African context by the horns as it challenges the often dormant and traditionalist ways in which higher education spaces see knowledge. Through original research and the voices of academics and students, this book argues for repurposing knowledge generation, knowledge sharing and critical pedagogy so that more inclusive teaching and learning environments can be both imagined and sustained. The contentious tensionalities that this creates for LoLT and SoTL in particular are unlocked so as to trouble the South African higher education landscape with the intent to proffer alternative pathways for a knowledge beyond colour lines Prof Shan Simmonds PhD NWU This edited volume bristles with fresh scholarly approaches and insights of an emergent generation of engaged scholars grappling with the issues and problems of higher education in South Africa The issues dealt with here are varied and encompassing They are treated with intellectual delicacy and probing sensitivity articulacy informed data and bold conclusions They serve well Prof Kwesi Kwaa Prah Emeritus Professor of Sociology University of the Western Cape Founder of the Centre for Advanced Studies of African Society
