Adam Gilchrist

Gear Sponsorship Letter:

True Colours Adam Gilchrist, 2008-11-01 Many critics believe Adam Gilchrist is the greatest wicketkeeper batsman to have played the game but Adam's huge popularity does not rest solely on his incredible track record. To his millions of fans around the world it is the way he plays the game rather than simply the sum of his achievements that marks him out as one of the best loved cricketers of his generation. He is both a swashbuckling batsman and record breaking wicketkeeper yet perhaps his true impact has come from the manner in which he plays his cricket with an integrity and sense of values that many thought had departed the game forever. True Colours is his autobiography and like the man himself it's incomparable. With unflinching honesty, intelligence, compassion and humour, Adam takes you into the world of cricket that few outside of the Australian team have ever seen. From his early struggles to establish himself through to the giant achievements of the Australian test and one day sides, True Colours offers an extraordinary window on Adam, on cricket's major stars and on the game itself.

The Wilderness Paddler's Handbook Alan S. Kesselheim, 2012-11-13 The Wilderness Paddler's Handbook offers paddlers of any stripe. Alan Kesselheim's personal, engaging writing and his unsurpassed experience. Helpful sidebars interspersed throughout the book provide step by step instructions on all critical technical considerations. Everything a new or experienced paddler can expect to encounter is included from trip planning, choosing the right gear and packing to camping, cooking, modifying your boat and dealing with conditions on every kind of water. Whether it's how to pick the right partner, negotiate a tricky rapid, go solo or bring the entire family, it's all here in this entertaining, inspiring and informative guide. Alan Kesselheim has paddled thousands of wilderness miles alone with his wife Marypat and with his young children strapped into the canoe like babies in car seats. He's paddled fast moving rivers, windswept lakes and quiet ponds. One trip took him on a 13 month 2000 mile journey from Grande Cache, Alberta to Baker Lake in the Northwest Territories. He's also one of North America's preeminent canoeing writers and his hard won opinions are highly respected.

The Library of Congress Author

Catalog Library of Congress,1953 Get Sponsored Jeff Blumenfeld,2014-01-07 Christopher Columbus needed a sponsor for a dangerous expedition but the king of Portugal wasn't interested. He repackaged his proposal for the queen of Spain. She put Columbus on retainer and the rest is history. Columbus may not have been the first to discover America but he had a great publicist. That's where Jeff Blumenfeld comes in. For many years using a PR specialty called adventure marketing, Jeff has connected explorers and their projects with corporate sponsors looking to demonstrate product performance in extreme conditions. His book takes the reader from Erik Weihenmayer's expedition to be the first blind man to summit Mount Everest to the first confirmed dogsled expedition of the North Pole to Audrey Mestre's deadly free dive expedition off Bayahibe beach in the Dominican Republic. You Want to Go Where is the only book that not only takes you behind the scenes of some of the most dangerous adventure expeditions in recent years but also shows how you can fund and arrange your own trip including details on everything from grants to sponsorships. For anyone who's ever had a dream to scale the tallest mountain or cross the largest ocean, You Want to Go Where is your ticket. Full of fascinating stories and practical advice, it's ideal for armchair explorers and budding adventurers alike.

A Stitch in Time Frederick H. Abernathy, John T. Dunlop, Janice H. Hammond, David Weil, 1999-07-29 The apparel and textile industries have always been at the mercy of rapidly changing styles and fickle customers who want the latest designs while they are still in fashion. The result for these businesses often forced to forecast sales and order from suppliers with scant information about volatile demand is a history of stock shortages, high inventories, and costly markdowns. But as the authors explain in A Stitch in Time, technological advances in the 1980s paved the way for a new concept in retailing: lean retailing. Pioneered by companies like WAL-MART, lean retailing has reshaped the way that products are ordered, virtually eliminating delays from distribution center to sales rack by drawing on sales data captured electronically at the checkout counter. Armed with up to the minute data about colors, sizes, styles, and geographic sales, apparel and textile companies now must be able to respond rapidly to real-time orders efficiently based on new approaches to distributing merchandise, forecasting, planning, organizing production, and managing supplier relations. A Stitch in Time shows that even in the face of burgeoning product proliferation, companies that successfully adapt to the world of lean retailing can reduce inventory risk, reduce costs, and increase profitability while improving their responsiveness to the ever-changing tastes of customers. Based on the success of these practices in the apparel industry, lean retailing practices are propagating through a growing number of consumer product industries. A richly detailed and resonant account, A Stitch in Time brilliantly captures both the history and future of the retail apparel/textile channel and offers bold insights on the changes and challenges facing retailers and manufacturers in all segments of our rapidly changing economy.
