

In this bag is a daisy to remind you on your way
Where you came from, how hard you worked and what you are today
A special girl with a big heart that is so smart and true Friends, plans, helping hands but don't forget the glue

In this bag is a brownie to show you where to go
A sweet, a treat that keeps you on your feet and allows you to grow
A special girl with a caring hand and a heart of gold
Who loves surprises, plays and disguises and promised to never grow old

Sometimes we make mistakes along the way that seem hard to mend
Remember to count on your Daisy ways and always make new friends

With these gifts we give you a joyous new direction
To have and hold your friends of gold with all of their protection

Good luck to you our past girls of blue

To see the future tried and true

Enjoy the fun, the sun, the run and never see a frown
Because we know you're soon to be the happy girls of brown.

Wolf at the Door is a short poem that captures a snapshot of family life and the activities surrounding the Girl Scout experience The poem effectively uses simple and concise language to paint a vivid picture of the scene The opening lines set the stage with Mama ironing the Brownie Uniform symbolizing the passage of time as it is now worn by the speaker s sister This detail creates a sense of nostalgia and hints at the speaker s growth and progression within the Girl Scouts The poem continues with the speaker taking on the role of the cook preparing Wolf at the Door for supper This dish serves a dual purpose as a meal for the family and as practice for the upcoming scout weekend campout This connection between food and scouting activities adds depth to the narrative emphasizing the speaker s commitment to their role as a Girl Scout BIO Sharon Waller Knutson is a retired journalist who was born in Montana and now lives in Arizona She has published ten
