Chinese Entertainment Kwok-Bun Chan, 2014-06-11 Scholarly studies of Chinese culture history and society both within and outside of China generally pay little attention to leisure entertainment and amusement though it has long been known that this aspect of life gives a deep understanding of the psyche and soul and the hopes and fears of a person Leisure is a less coerced upon mandatory human conduct than work certainly leisurely conduct is more voluntary expressive and creative But when seen as human behaviour leisure and entertainment cannot be separated from history heritage ethnicity the community family and kin rituals and customs thus a collective activity and its constraints on the person This book examines a variety of genre of Chinese entertainment from singing clubs Cantonese opera and film to Chinese rock and tourism Though formally voluntary Chinese entertainment when entangled with ethnicity heritage and history is ironically a site of both enjoyment and struggle both pleasure and suffering This book was originally published as a special issue of Visual Anthropology Making

Matthew Acciaccatura of Teaneck, New Jersey, begins his freshman year at NYU in the fall of 1995 with one goal in mind: to become cool. A former high school outcast used to lumbering the hallways alone in oversized turtlenecks, Matt seems an unlikely candidate for such a transformation. Yet by dint of effort, he lands the coveted position of promoter at one of the hottest clubs in New York in the heyday of rave music and Ecstasy. However, as Magic Matt rises to fame, portents of tragedy begin to appear literally in the margins of the story. Footnotes from one Dr. Hans Mannheim, an imprisoned German academic obsessed with Matt's dangerous trajectory, suggest that Matt is not as in control of his destiny as he might appear. A gorgeously written archetypal tale of self-discovery and self-deception and a love letter to the enduring possibilities of New York City, The Answer Is Always Yes will keep readers guessing until its explosive climax. Shooting and Fishing, 1917

Living the Dream! Austin James, 2024-11-08 This is the story of my life from childhood struggles with polio to leaving home at seventeen for an apprenticeship with British Aircraft Corporation working on the iconic Concorde. My career path took me through Westland Helicopters and British Rail before a 22-year career at British Airways in London where I became a Senior Airline Engineer licensed to maintain a fleet of company aircraft. After that, I turned to flying for pleasure and eventually became a Chief Flying Instructor starting my own flying school. Over 36 years of training pilots, I experienced fourteen engine failures, three near misses, and two bird strikes, the most dramatic being a fight with a buzzard that smashed through the windscreen, hitting my student in the face, leaving him with a black eye and a split lip and ending up draped around his neck like a scarf. I also survived a cockpit fire shortly after takeoff that burned my left leg. Then there's the story of a mild-mannered religious pilot who became a good friend. He once told me about the day his ejection seat failed during a jet spin out, sending him plummeting toward the ground. Resigned to death, he was saved by a voice in his head that he believed was God offering the solution just in time. Buddies Against Bullies Marcia Ostrander, 2010-12-02 Teachers of
