The Report: Qatar 2015 Oxford Business Group, 2015-04-22 Qatar's sizable oil and natural gas reserves have underpinned its rapid economic growth over the past two decades Home to the world's largest non associated gas field the country is the world's fourth largest producer of dry natural gas and the largest producer of liquefied natural gas with hydrocarbons revenues forming the bulk of national income as a result Although the drop in global energy prices has impacted export revenues rigorous economic diversification drives in recent years have paid dividends and in 2015 non hydrocarbons growth reached 7.7% compared to a 0.1% contraction for hydrocarbons growth during the same period The country's financial sector has continued to evolve Islamic banking in particular has witnessed significant progress Meanwhile as the country gears up to host several important sporting events in the coming years most notably the 2022 FIFA World Cup numerous big ticket infrastructure builds continue to expand the construction sector

Family, Children, and Tourism in China Mimi Li, Xinran Lehto, 2021-12-14 This edited volume explores various issues in family tourism studies and complements the dramatic development of this market segment in China The book concentrates on family and children tourism and through its chapters hopes to enrich the landscape of family tourism in academia The family market in tourism has received increasing attention over past decades Yet academic endeavors in this area remain somewhat lacking in depth and scope In addition to imbalanced contributions from authors of diverse backgrounds the extant literature suffers from insufficient inclusion of children Relevant studies are largely limited to conventional tourism destinations such as beaches and cultural attractions In response to growing academic interest in family tourism this book is a compilation of eight chapters that attempt to push the scope and boundaries of existing research on family tourism The chapters in this book were originally published as a special issue of the Journal of China Tourism Research Transcultural Nursing - E-Book Joyce Newman Giger,Yolanda M.
