Exam Question MCQs Language Across the Curriculum & CLIL in English as an Additional Language (EAL) Contexts Angel M.Y. Lin,2016-09-15 This book will be of interest to a broad readership regardless of whether they have a background in sociolinguistics functional linguistics or genre theories It presents an accessible meta language i e a language for talking about language that is workable and usable for teachers and researchers from both language and content backgrounds thus facilitating collaboration across content and language subject panels Chapters 1 to 3 lay the theoretical foundation of this common meta language by critically reviewing systematically presenting and integrating key theoretical resources for teachers and researchers in this field In turn Chapters 4 to 7 focus on issues in pedagogy and assessment and on school based approaches to LAC and CLIL drawing on both research studies and the experiences of front line teachers and school administrators Chapter 8 provides a critical and reflexive angle on the field by asking difficult questions regarding how LAC and CLIL are often situated in contexts characterized by inequality of access to the linguistic and cultural capitals where the local languages of the students are usually neglected or viewed unfavourably in relation to the L2 in mainstream society and where teachers are usually positioned as recipients of knowledge rather than makers of knowledge In closing Chapter 9 reviews the state of the art in the field and proposes directions for future inquiry

Language Politics in Tunisia Fethi Helal, Joseph Lo Bianco, 2025-02-11 This book offers both an empirical examination of language ideologies and language policies in post Arab Spring Tunisia and a detailed critical and interdisciplinary model of Language Policy and Planning LPP The authors present a comprehensive picture of how multiple language ideologies interact and play out as language policy against a background of political turmoil in a country with a complex history of indigenous and colonial languages They utilise critical perspectives from Sociolinguistics and Applied Linguistics and add Critical Discourse Studies and a Discourse Historical Approach to produce a model of LPP for scholars in other settings to describe and work to improve their own specific language contexts

Advancing Language Research through Q Methodology Nicola Frascini, Adrian Lundberg, Renata Aliani, 2024-07-16 This volume investigates the ways in which Q methodology can uncover and foreground new perspectives and contribute to language education and language policy research It demonstrates the flexibility of this research methodology in addressing dynamic and complex language issues across a variety of educational topics and geographical contexts The chapter authors use Q methodology to explore topics such as identity motivation cognition emotion pre service and in service teacher beliefs and to evaluate language programmes curricula and policies These contributions highlight Q methodology s potential to inform theoretical developments by revealing fresh perspectives on contemporary issues and generating new hypotheses They foster further Q methodology research demonstrating how it can contribute to a science of subjectivity and allow researchers to value the perspectives of all stakeholders for more inclusive research This book will be of interest to graduate students and researchers in language education and language policy research and those in the broader field of social sciences looking to expand their knowledge of the methodology and how it can be used to study contemporary dynamic and complex issues
