preface by the author P 1 of cover The Misadventures of Nero Wolfe Josh Pachter, 2020-04-14 Stories that pay tribute to Rex Stout's legendary private detective by Lawrence Sanders, Loren D Estleman, John Lescroart, Robert Goldsborough and more. If imitation is the sincerest form of flattery, then Nero Wolfe and Archie Goodwin have been widely flattered almost from the moment Rex Stout first wrote about them in 1934. The Misadventures of Nero Wolfe collects two dozen literary tributes to one of crime fiction's best-loved private detectives and his Man Friday. Included are a 1947 pastiche by award-winning crime writer Thomas Narcejac, rollicking new stories written especially for this collection by Michael Bracken and Robert Lopresti, stories by bestselling authors including Lawrence Sanders and Loren D Estleman, chapters from Robert Goldsborough's authorized continuation of the Wolfe series, Marion Mainwaring's 1955 tour de force Murder in Pastiche, and John Lescroart's Rasputin's Revenge, which reimagines a young Wolfe as the son of Sherlock Holmes. Also featuring a reminiscence from Rex Stout's daughter, this is a treasury of witty and suspenseful crime writing for every fan of the portly private detective.

The Psychology and Sociology of Wrongful Convictions Wendy J Koen, C. Michael Bowers, 2018-06-26 Wrongful convictions are the result of faulty or false scientific evidence in 50% of the cases. Defense counsel is often at a great disadvantage in defending against evidence based on science. Illusory Evidence: The Psychology and Sociology of Wrongful Convictions is written for the non-scientist to make complicated scientific information clear and concise enough for attorneys and judges to master. This is obtained by providing case studies to simplify issues in forensic psychology for the legal professional. Increases the courts' knowledge about areas of psychology that have been debunked, have advanced, or have been refined by the scientific community. Covers issues in psychological forensics, namely Profiling, Psychological Defenses, Mitigation, Eyewitness Testimony, Identification, Child Testimony, Repressed Memories, False Confessions, and Moral Panic. Trains prosecuting attorneys about the present state of the forensic psychology to avoid relying only on legal precedent and will not present flawed science to the court. Provides defense attorneys the knowledge necessary to competently defend where forensic psychology plays a part in a prosecution. Arms innocence projects and appellate attorneys with the latest information to challenge convictions. Uses case studies to simplify issues in forensic psychology for the legal professional.

Racial Reckoning Renee C. Romano, 2014-10-14 Few whites who violently resisted the civil rights struggle were charged with crimes in the 1950s and 1960s. But the tide of a long deferred justice began to change in 1994 when a Mississippi jury convicted Byron De La Beckwith for the 1963 murder of Medgar Evers. Since then more than one hundred murder cases have been reopened, resulting in more than a dozen trials. But how much did these public trials contribute to a public reckoning with America's racist past? Racial Reckoning investigates that question along with the political pressures and cultural forces that compelled the legal system to revisit these decades-old crimes. A timely and significant work, Romano brilliantly demystifies the false binary of villainous white men like Beckwith or Edgar Ray Killen, who represent vestiges of a violent racial past, with a more enlightened, color-blind society. Considering the current partisan and racial divide over the prosecution of police shootings of unarmed black men this book is a must read for historians legal analysts and journalists interested in understanding the larger meanings of civil rights or racially explosive trials in America Chanelle Rose American Historical Review The Two Sides of Yourself G.A.
