Northern Lights Donald E. Abelson, 2016-11-01 Think tanks are often thought of as a uniquely US phenomenon Although the largest concentration of think tanks is in the United States they can be found in virtually every country Often overlooked Canada's think tanks represent a highly diverse and eclectic group of public policy organizations such as the Canadian Centre for Policy Alternatives the C D Howe Institute the Fraser Institute and the Mowat Centre among others In Northern Lights Donald Abelson explores the rise of think tanks in Canada and addresses many of the most commonly asked questions about how and under what circumstances they are able to affect public opinion and public policy He identifies the ways in which Canadian think tanks often prioritize political advocacy over policy research and seeks to explain why these organizations are well suited and equipped to shape the discourse around key policy issues The first comprehensive examination of think tanks in Canada Northern Lights is both a primer for those looking to understand the role and function of think tanks in the policy making process and a guide to the leading policy institutes in the country

Managing oil palm landscapes Lesley Potter, 2015-05-26 This study comprises a review of oil palm development and management across landscapes in the tropics Seven countries have been selected for detailed analysis using surveys of the current literature mainly spanning the last fifteen years Indonesia and Malaysia are the obvious leaders in terms of area planted and levels of production and export but also in literature generated on social and environmental challenges In Latin America Colombia is the dominant producer with oil palm expanding in disparate landscapes with a strong focus on palm oil based biodiesel and small scale growers and companies in Peru and Brazil offer contrasting ways of inserting oil palm into the Amazon Nigeria and Cameroon represent African nations with traditional groves and old plantations in which foreign land grabs to establish new oil palm have recently occurred
