Libraries as Partners in Data Science Ecosystems Mani, Nandita S.,Cawley, Michelle A.,2022-05-06 Beyond providing space for data science activities academic libraries are often overlooked in the data science landscape that is emerging at academic research institutions Although some academic libraries are collaborating in specific ways in a small subset of institutions there is much untapped potential for developing partnerships As library and information science roles continue to evolve to be more data centric and interdisciplinary and as research using a variety of data types continues to proliferate it is imperative to further explore the dynamics between libraries and the data science ecosystems in which they are a part The Handbook of Research on Academic Libraries as Partners in Data Science Ecosystems provides a global perspective on current and future trends concerning the integration of data science in libraries It provides both a foundational base of knowledge around data science and explores numerous ways academicians can reskill their staff engage in the research enterprise contribute to curriculum development and help build a stronger ecosystem where libraries are part of data science Covering topics such as data science initiatives digital humanities and student engagement this book is an indispensable resource for librarians information professionals academic institutions researchers academic libraries and academicians

Celebrating 50 years of ACAL Akinbiyi Akinlabi ,Lee Bickmore,Michael Cahill ,Michael Diercks,Laura J. Downing,James Essegbe,Katie Franich ,Laura McPherson ,Sharon Rose ,2021 The papers in this volume were presented at the 50th Annual Conference on African Linguistics held at the University of British Columbia in 2019 The contributions span a range of theoretical topics as well as topics in descriptive and applied linguistics The papers reflect the typological and genetic diversity of languages in Africa and also represent the breadth of the ACAL community with papers from both students and more senior scholars based in North America and beyond They thus provide a snapshot on current research in African linguistics from multiple perspectives To mark the 50th anniversary of the conference the volume editors reminisce in the introductory chapter about their memorable ACALS   The New Constitutional Law of Kenya. Principles, Government and Human Rights Kiwinda Mbondenyi,Osogo Ambani,2012 The golden thread that cuts across the various chapters of the book is the emphasis that good constitutions anchor certain tenets that have garnered recognition as hallmarks of democratic dispensation These hallmarks include the concept of separation of powers the doctrine of the rule of law constitutionalism and human rights These attributes have largely been secured by the 2010 Constitution Thus this book is expected to contribute to this new promise by making knowledge on the Constitution accessible through breaking down and contextualising its provisions It is certain to be useful to law and government students lawyers researchers and other persons who seek to understand the new constitutional order Developing Africa's Financial Services Dana T. Redford,2017-05-11

Financial services are an essential element in powering entrepreneurial activity beyond resource extraction in Africa This book examines the macro trends and highlights inspiring success stories of entrepreneurial financial sector ventures that are making a lasting contribution to the economic development of various sub Saharan African countries Discourses of Globalisation and Higher Education Reforms Joseph Zajda,W. James Jacob,2022-03-15 This book examines some of the major higher education reforms and policy shifts globally particularly in the light of recent shifts in quality and standards driven education and policy research It critiques the neo liberal ideological imperatives of current higher education and policy reforms and illustrates the way that changes in the relationship between the state and higher education policy affect current trends in higher education reforms Using diverse comparative education paradigms from critical theory to historical comparative research the chapters focus on globalisation ideology and higher education reforms and examine both the reasons and outcomes of higher education reforms and policy change The book analyses and evaluates the policy shifts in methodological approaches to globalisation and higher education reforms and their impact on education policy and pedagogy The book contributes in a very scholarly way to a more holistic understanding of the nexus between globalisation comparative education research and higher education reforms African Dynamics in a Multipolar World ,2013-05-16 Fifty years after the foundation of the OAU and the consolidation of most African states and institutions the international panorama and Africa s position in it have changed considerably The world s geopolitical and economic configuration has evolved with new actors appearing in a new period of globalization In tone with ECAS 2013 this volume proposes that the experiences appearing in Africa question dominant paradigms in terms of political practice and academic reflection and thus offer a clear challenge to the academic community The volume offers clues to answer questions such as What is the impact of the current processes of globalization for African countries and African citizens How should African Studies be engaged to gauge African dynamics both at a local and global level What interdisciplinary means and tools should be brought in to produce an epistemologically relevant view or narrative of the issues under analysis

Women's Empowerment for Sustainability in Africa Robert Dibie,2019-01-17 This book uses an open explorative approach to deal with the different aspects of gender discrimination and gender empowerment policies as well as their impact on economic development and capacity building in several African countries It uses primary and secondary data to present the argument that without the full input of women sustainable development will not be achieved in many African countries This book is the first text written by knowledgeable gender issue experts that understand the culture of and lived and conducted research in Africa It provides many examples of the relationships between gender and economic development around the African continent highlighting different processes and practices As such the contributors here illustrate the impact of weak gender policies and the ability to adequately develop female capacity building that could lead to wide spread sustainable economic growth in Africa They also explore a wide range of new dimensions and variables that are commonly ignored by other text books on gender equality The book will help graduate undergraduate students and other readers to understand women s policies in the past present and future by analysing and illustrating cultural political and socio historical contexts which have shaped women s role in the economic and sustainable development of Africa Kenya National Assembly Official Record \(Hansard\),1987-06-09 The official records of the proceedings of the Legislative Council of the Colony and Protectorate of Kenya the House of Representatives of the Government of Kenya and the National Assembly of the Republic of Kenya The African Journal of Finance and Management,2014 Field Station Bahia Livio Sansone,2023-03-27 This book offers a new perspective on the making of Afro Brazilian African American and African studies through the interrelated trajectory of E Franklin Frazier Lorenzo Dow Turner Frances and Melville Herskovits in Brazil The book compares the style network and agenda of these different and yet somehow converging scholars and relates them to the Brazilian intellectual context especially Bahia which showed in those days much less density and organization than the US equivalent It is therefore a double comparison between four Americans and between Americans and scholars based in Brazil Information Communication Technology (ICT)

Integration to Educational Curricula Cosmas Uchenna Nwokeafor,2015-02-24 Information Communication Technology ICT Integration to Educational Curricula serves as a standard textbook in graduate and senior level undergraduate classes in colleges and universities to contribute to the existing mass communication and ICT literature The textbook offers a multi discipline perspective to students of mass communication and information technology and avails them an opportunity to have a valid research tool with great details to pursue their research and class assignments It provides an essential platform for appropriate literature in mass communication political communication and ICT details with relevance to its integration in Africa educational curricula The book can also serve as a supplemental text for courses in mass media effects politics and political communications It includes contributions by scholars and professionals of African extraction with varied research interests on diverse issues relevant to ICT and its significant impact to curricula development and application to Africa as the new African educational system The chapters cover a wide array of mass communication diffusion of innovation and ICT issues of diverse importance that will guide students government agencies and professionals in following the imminent and evolving changes resulting from the integration of technology to educational curricula Proceedings of ISES World Congress 2007 (Vol.1-Vol.5) D.
