Teaching English Language and Literature 16-19 Furzeen Ahmed, Marcello Giovanelli, Megan Mansworth, Felicity Titjen, 2020-10-28 This book offers both a scholarly and practical overview of an integrated language and literature approach in the 16-19 English classroom. Providing a comprehensive overview of the identity of the subject, it outlines the pedagogical benefits of studying a unified English at post-16 and provides case studies of innovative classroom practice across a range of topics and text types. Including contributions from practising teachers and higher education practitioners with extensive experience of the post-16 classroom and drawing on a range of literature, this book covers the teaching of topics such as Mind style in contemporary fiction, Comparative poetry analysis, Insights from linguistic cohesion, Criticality through creative response. Written to complement the two other Teaching English 16-19 titles in the NATE series, Teaching English Language and Literature 16-19 is the ideal companion for all practising A-level English teachers of all levels of experience. GCSE English Language for AQA Progress Student Book Clare Constant, Imelda Pilgrim, Bernard Ward, 2015-06-04 Specifically written for the AQA GCSE English language specification for first teaching from 2015, this student book is designed for students to progress to grade 5 with extension activities to facilitate achievement beyond this. With progress at its heart, this differentiated resource covers a range of 19th, 20th and 21st century texts and has spelling, punctuation and grammar support integrated throughout. How to Teach Chris Curtis, 2019-07-17 Written by Chris Curtis, How to Teach English: Novels, non-fiction and their artful navigation is jam-packed with enlivening ideas to help teachers make the subject of English more intellectually challenging for students and to make it fun too. Never underestimate your duty and power as a teacher of English. English teachers help students to think and feel. They prompt them to reflect on their actions. They hold a mirror to society and inspire students to see how they can make it better. What other subject does that? This insightful interpretation of what makes excellent secondary school English teaching is the work of a man whose humility fails to hide his brilliance and provides educators with a sophisticated yet simple framework upon which to hook their lessons. Covering poetry, grammar, Shakespeare and how to teach writing, Chris Curtis has furnished every page of this book with exciting ideas that can be put into practice immediately. Each chapter presents a store of practical strategies to help students in key areas, providing apposite examples, teaching sequences and the rationale behind them, and has been accessibly laid out so that teachers can pinpoint the solutions they need without having to spend an age wading through academic theory and pontification. The book explores the wealth of learning opportunities that can be derived from both classic and more contemporary literature and offers expert guidance on how teachers can exploit their own chosen texts to best effect with their students. Furthermore, it is replete with ready-to-use approaches that will help teachers upgrade their lesson planning, enhance their classroom practice and ensure that the content they cover sticks in their students' heads for months and years afterwards. Suitable for all English teachers of students aged 11-18. The British National Bibliography Arthur James
