

A person is walking away from the viewer across a vast, green savanna landscape. In the background, there are several acacia trees and large, rounded hills under a hazy, pinkish-orange sky, suggesting a sunset or sunrise. A thin vertical line is visible in the center of the image, possibly a page fold or a design element.

Escape from Saigon Andrea Warren,2004-09-09 More than a million South Vietnamese children were orphaned by the Vietnam War This affecting true account tells the story of Long who like more than 40 000 other orphans is a mixed race child with little future in Vietnam and his dramatic escape to America

Sand in Their Eyes Charlie Doan,Chuck Doan,2016-01-05 The final days of American involvement in the Vietnam War were consumed with the urgent effort to evacuate all American personnel By some measures the evacuation was considered a success the Americans escaped further harm and managed to take nearly 140 000 refugees with them But those left behindsoldiers of the South Vietnamese army government officials and their entire familieswere now targets As a direct result of their work with the American military Tu n Chuck oan s family becomes one of those targets Facing imprisonment starvation and extreme poverty Tu n and his family must escape communist Vietnam or die in the attempt Their incredible journey crosses three countries and two years in this true story of long lasting resilience in the search for freedom

An Escape from Communist Vietnam Ann Tran-Mace,2015-12-13 In the years following the end of the Vietnam War in 1975 hundreds of thousands fled the brutal Communist rule Some estimates put the number well over a million In fleeing tens of thousands perished most by drowning Other refugees were kidnapped and murdered by pirates and many were sold into slavery or prostitution This book is about a family that fled Vietnam in 1978 It is a story that follows the lives of two people how they met fell in love started a family and created a successful business until the Communists took control forcing them to leave their homeland in search of freedom in America In this poignant account the author who was only seven years old when their boat slipped out to sea shares her family s remarkable story of love faith and determination

Saigon to San Diego Trinh Do,2003-12-31 When I was 12 I didn t think I would get past ninth grade When I was 14 I didn t think I would live to my twentieth birthday For me to be here today is a dream beyond my comprehension Set against the backdrop of the Vietnam War s aftermath this memoir tells the story of Trinh Do a boy fighting for survival in newly unified communist Vietnam Trinh Do was born in Saigon in 1964 His father a soldier in the South Vietnam Army was taken to a re education camp after the communist victory in 1975 His family was thrown out of their home and Do took care of his mother and younger brothers He struggled to stay in school because of his father Do faced constant prejudice from the communist administration He was expelled for refusing to betray his classmates in 1978 soon after his mother arranged for him to escape Vietnam in a fishing boat After a perilous journey he landed in Malaysia where he spent six months in a refugee camp and then made his way to the United States His parents attempted a similar escape four years later and were lost to the South China Sea This memoir tells the story of Do s generation coming of age in a brutal period of Vietnam s history and is illustrated with family photographs Framed within a complex historical setting it reveals the cruelty inflicted upon the populace by the Vietnamese communists for the purpose of internal security An intimate portrait of daily life under communist rule and an examination of the political and military situation Do s memoir describes the propaganda and repression through the words of a Vietnamese schoolboy Nam Moi Charlene Ung,2018-02-17 Nam Moi A Young Girl s Story of Her Family s Escape from Vietnam is a true story of triumph over repression danger and hardship Escaping from Vietnam meant traveling on a rusty cargo ship in the South China Sea for months barely hanging onto life Nam Moi s father paid precious gold for the chance to escape the country but the price the family paid to survive was much higher than gold They had to start their lives all over again Flight To Freedom Ernestine Schiano,2021-05-31 The Vietnam War is the commonly used name for the Second Indochina War 1954 1975 Usually it refers to the period when the United States and other members of the SEATO Southeast Asia Treaty Organization joined the forces with the Republic of South Vietnam to contest communist forces comprised of South Vietnamese guerrillas and regular force units generally known as Viet Cong VC and the North Vietnamese Army NVA The U S possessing the largest foreign military presence essentially directed the war from 1965 to 1968 For this reason in Vietnam today it is known as the American War Little Huong Yang aged three runs for her life to a cave in the mountains as a US fighter bomber swoops low over her village It is a pattern repeated many times over the next eight years Twice her home and the whole street where they lived are razed to the ground in bomb attacks Superstition is rife on the island after 13 women drown in mysterious circumstances and many villagers are struck down after a fish god is killed Peace brings new dangers for ethnic Chinese families like Huong s and they are forced out of Vietnam taking the Railway of Death then wading over the Red River into China After escaping from a state farm they set out on a perilous 1 000 mile voyage in a tiny boat only to face six years in a refugee camp Can she survive a blazing inferno as she huddles trapped on the roof of a 13 story factory Her family s flight to freedom is a gripping true story of courage emotion fortitude and romance Too Young to Escape Marsha Forchuk Skrypuch,Van Ho,2018-11-02 During the aftermath of the Vietnam War Van wakes up one morning to find that her mother her sisters Loan and Lan and her brother Tuan are gone They have escaped the new communist regime that has taken over Ho Chi Minh City for freedom in the West Four year old Van is too young and her grandmother is too old for such a dangerous journey by boat so the two have been left behind Once settled in North America her parents will eventually be able to sponsor them and Van and her grandmother will fly away to safety But in the meantime Van is forced to work hard to satisfy her aunt and uncle who treat her like an unwelcome servant And at school she must learn that calling attention to herself is a mistake especially when the bully who has been tormenting her turns out to be the son of a military policeman Van Ho s true story strikes at the heart and will resonate with so many families affected by war where so many children are forced to live under or escape from repressive regimes Our Very Own Story about Escaping from Vietnam ,1983 Stories written by local primary school children reflecting on their experiences as Vietnamese refugees Adrift at Sea Marsha Forchuk Skrypuch,2016-09-22 It is

1981 In the middle of the Pacific Ocean a fishing boat overloaded with 60 Vietnamese refugees drifts The motor has failed the hull is leaking the drinking water is nearly gone This is the dramatic true story recounted by Tuan Ho who was six years old when he his mother and two sisters dodged the bullets of Vietnam s military police for the perilous chance of boarding that boat Told to multi award winning author Marsha Forchuk Skrypuch and illustrated by the celebrated Brian Deines Tuan s story has become Adrift At Sea the first picture book to describe the flight of Vietnam s Boat People refugees Illustrated with sweeping oil paintings and complete with an expansive historical and biographical section with photographs this non fiction picture book is all the more important as the world responds to a new generation of refugees risking all on the open water for the chance at safety and a new life

Nam Moi Charlene Lin Ung,2015 Saigon November 1978 Under the cover of darkness a desperate family leaves home and friends hoping to escape the harsh regime of Communist Vietnam Their goal is to reunite with the four oldest children sent ahead to the United States but first they must evade ruthless communist patrols Eleven year old Nam Moi is confused afraid and now homeless Her future seems bleak and devoid of hope The risks are great but it was not the first time her family had taken risks Long ago her Ung ancestors had migrated from China to northern Vietnam When the country was partitioned in 1954 they moved again to South Vietnam Nam Moi or little girl from the South was born in Saigon during the Vietnam War Her family survived the fighting but living under Communist rule was very hard After years of planning and debating Nam Moi s father made the bold decision to escape in hope of finding a better life for his children somewhere else Nam Moi had been taught that sometimes gambles must be taken for a better life But would this huge gamble bring freedom or cost them all their lives Nam Moi A Young Girl s Story of Her Family s Escape from Vietnam is a true story of triumph over repression danger and hardship Escaping from Vietnam meant traveling on a rusty cargo ship in the South China Sea for months barely hanging onto life Nam Moi s father paid precious gold for the chance to escape the country but the price the family paid to survive was much higher than gold They had to start their lives all over again

Escape from Vietnam Mabel NGO,2019-11-19 The true story of one family s survival from the fall of Saigon to a new life in America Van and Nu take the first step to form a family of their own but little do they know what challenges were to come

Escaping Vietnam: a Boy's View Coon V. Chau,2010-10-19 This is a personal story of my journey to America It describes why my family and I decided to leave Viet Nam how we left Viet Nam and the obstacles that we endured for the price of freedom This book was written so people around the world can see the injustice that occurred to many thousands of Vietnamese who died seeking a new home after Viet Nam became a communistic state It is the hope that this book will give a sense of closure to many Vietnamese such as myself to forgive forget and be at peace

Vietnam My Great Escape and Successful Stories Tina Bui,2014 This is the true story from an author who had spent most of her young life during the tumultuous years of the Vietnam War Whereby millions of innocence Vietnamese service members and civilians were tragically killed

Leaving Vietnam Sarah S. Kilborne,1999 This is the story of Tuan and his father who endure danger and difficulties when they escape by boat from Vietnam spend days at sea and then months in refugee camps before making their way to the United States Story On Soldiers In Lao During The Vietnam War Carylann Emke, 2021-05-27 This little book captured life in a Laotian village and was expressed honestly by a little girl who lived there She was born into a Buddhism family grew up in a rice farming village lived the bare minimum and at times with barely enough food to eat In this book you will discover how A desperate mother all by herself cared for five young children during the first year of living under the communist rulers before she helped them escape to a refugee camp in Thailand One Buddhist family raised their children in a village where conformity was the rule as it passed down from generation to generation Village children learned family responsibility by helping in the kitchen farm and rice paddies side by side with their parents Animals of all kinds sizes shapes and forms could become the starving family s dinner Life experiences at the tender age of a child helped form her view of the world and people around her One floor school building was a blessing to a child with an innate and unquenchable desire to learning Our Very Own Stories about Escaping from Vietnam , 1983
