contributed to the literature of our mother tongue Of course when we consider it carefully we cannot fail to see that the literature of a language is one and indivisible and that the nativity or the domicile of those who make it matters nothing Just as Alexandrian literature is Greek so American literature is English and as Theocritus demands inclusion in any account of Greek literature so Thoreau cannot be omitted from any history of English literature as a whole The works of Anthony Hamilton and Rousseau Mme de Sta l and M Maeterlinck are not more indisputably a part of the literature of the French language than the works of Franklin and Emerson of Hawthorne and Poe are part of the literature of the English language
