Cruising World, 2003-12 How the Military Remembers Cynthia E. Milton, Michael Lazzara, 2025 This groundbreaking collection of essays examines how Latin American militaries construct memories of past human rights violations in ways that challenge established public memory and human rights discourse While previous studies have focused on democratization transitional justice and victim centered narratives this volume takes a different approach It highlights the importance of deconstructing the military's own active memory work or their counter memories a term the editors use to describe military narratives that are both counterintuitive and that run counter to the victim oriented memories that have long dominated the region's public memory With attention to the distinct cultural political and historical contexts across

Latin America the essays reveal how military figures and institutions appropriate mechanisms of truth telling and accountability to reframe the past blur the lines between perpetrator and victim and weaponize memory itself Contributors Mariana Achugar Gabriela Fried Amilivia Rebecca Atencio Jo Marie Burt Rachel Hatcher Nicol s Rodr guez Id rraga Michael J Lazzara Cynthia E Milton Carla Granados Moya Mar a Emma Wills Obreg n Leith Passmore Valentina Salvi Gladys V squez Zevallos

Hispanic Muslims in the United States Victor Hugo Cuartas,2020-03-31 The empirical case in this study is that of the Hispanic Catholic converts to Islam in the Washington DC Metropolitan and New Jersey areas of the United States The central research question is To what extent do Hispanic Muslim converts play a role in making different choices regarding religious commitment and practice The argument is that not only do both the more and less active converts play a central role in making choices during the pre affiliation and post affiliation stages but that these choices can often be strategic in nature as they practice the new religion in the United States These choices are shaped by multiple factors This contributes to a new understanding of the prevailing debates among Muslims in Europe and the United States on the nature of Muslim minorities in the West that Muslims here are not merely transplanted but are active participants of diverse expressions of local Islam The evidence in my research shows that being less active does not mean converts do not play a role or make choices Both more active and less active converts make choices based on multiple factors This is especially significant as the main aim of this thesis is to show that the converts make choices and play a role in the post affiliation stage and that these often have strategic elements

England's Other Countrymen Onyeka Nubia,2019-06-15 The Tudor period remains a source of timeless fascination with endless novels TV programmes and films depicting the period in myriad ways And yet our image of the Tudor era remains overwhelmingly white This ground breaking and provocative new book seeks to redress the balance revealing not only how black presence in Tudor England was far greater than has previously been recognised but that Tudor conceptions of race were far more complex than we have been led to believe Onyeka Nubia s original research shows that Tudors from many walks of life regularly interacted with people of African descent both at home and abroad revealing a genuine pragmatism towards race and acceptance of difference Nubia also rejects the influence of the Curse of Ham myth on Tudor thinking persuasively arguing that many of the ideas associated with modern racism are in fact relatively recent developments

England s Other Countrymen is a bravura and eloquent forgotten history of diversity and cultural exchange and casts a new light on our own attitudes towards race
