11. A sample of an unknown compound with a mass of 0.847g has the following composition 50.51% F & 49.49% Fe (m/m). When the compound is decomposed into its elements, what is the contributing mass of each? Write the decomposition equation after reassembling the empirical formula.
.428g F & .419g Fe

 $\frac{.0225\text{mol F}}{.00751\text{mol}} = 3$ & $\frac{.00751\text{mol Fe}}{.00751\text{mol}} = 1$; $2\text{FeF}_3 \rightarrow 2\text{Fe} + 3\text{F}_2$
12. Find the molecular formula ...
13. A 50.51g sample of made of phosphorus and chlorine is decomposed. Analysis of the products showed that 11.39g of phosphorus atoms were produced.
 - a. What is the empirical formula of the compound?
 $11.39/30.97 = \frac{.368\text{mol P}}{.368\text{mol}}$ & $(50.51\text{g} - 11.39\text{g})/35.45\text{g} = \frac{.551\text{mol Cl}}{.368\text{mol}}$

= 1 P & 1.5 Cl (double to make whole #s) P₂Cl₃

Laboratory Manual for Principles of General Chemistry J. A. Beran, Mark Lassiter, 2022-08-16 Laboratory Manual for Principles of General Chemistry 11th Edition covers two semesters of a general chemistry laboratory program The material focuses on the lab experiences that reinforce the concepts that not all experimental conclusions are the same and depend on identifying an appropriate experimental procedure selecting the proper apparatus employing the proper techniques systematically analyzing and interpreting the data and minimizing inherent variables As a result of good data a scientific and analytical conclusion is made which may or may not be right but is certainly consistent with the data Experiments write textbooks textbooks don't write experiments A student's scientific literacy grows when experiences and observations associated with the scientific method are encountered Further experimentation provides additional cause effect observations leading to an even better understanding of the experiment The 11th edition's experiments are informative and challenging while offering a solid foundation for technique safety and experimental procedure The reporting and analysis of the data and the pre and post lab questions focus on the intuitiveness of the experiment The experiments may accompany any general chemistry textbook and are compiled at the beginning of each curricular unit An Additional Notes column is included in each experiment's Report Sheet to provide a space for recording observations and data during the experiment Continued emphasis on handling data is supported by the Data Analysis section

A Guide to Teaching in the Active Learning Classroom Paul Baepler, J. D. Walker, D. Christopher Brooks, Kem Saichaie, Christina I. Petersen, 2023-07-03 While Active Learning Classrooms or ALCs offer rich new environments for learning they present many new challenges to faculty because among other things they eliminate the room's central focal point and disrupt the conventional seating plan to which faculty and students have become accustomed The importance of learning how to use these classrooms well and to capitalize on their special features is paramount The potential they represent can be realized only when they facilitate improved learning outcomes and engage students in the learning process in a manner different from traditional classrooms and lecture halls This book provides an introduction to ALCs briefly covering their history and then synthesizing the research on these spaces to provide faculty with empirically based practical guidance on how to use these unfamiliar spaces effectively Among the questions this book addresses are How can instructors mitigate the apparent lack of a central focal point in the space What types of learning activities work well in the ALCs and take advantage of the affordances of the room How can teachers address familiar classroom management challenges in these unfamiliar spaces If assessment and rapid feedback are critical in active learning how do they work in a room filled with circular tables and no central focus point How do instructors balance group learning with the needs of the larger class How can students be held accountable when many will necessarily have their backs facing the instructor How can instructors evaluate the effectiveness of their teaching in these spaces This book is intended for faculty preparing to teach in or already working in this new classroom environment for administrators planning to create ALCs or experimenting with provisionally designed rooms and for faculty developers helping teachers transition to using these new spaces

Cultivating Capstones Caroline J. Ketcham, Anthony G. Weaver, Jessie L. Moore, 2023-07-03 Capstones have been a part of higher education curriculum for over two centuries with the goal of integrating student learning to cap off their undergraduate experience In practice capstones are most often delivered as a course or include a significant project that addresses a problem or contributes new knowledge This edited collection draws on multi year multi institutional and mixed methods studies to inform the development of best practices for cultivating capstones at a variety of higher education institutions The book is divided into three parts Part One offers typographies of capstones illustrating the diversity of experiences included in this high impact practice while also identifying essential characteristics that contribute to high quality culminating experiences for students Part Two shares specific culminating experiences with examples from multiple institutions and strategies for adapting them for readers own campus contexts Part Three offers research informed strategies for professional development to support implementation of high quality student learning experiences across a variety of campus contexts Cultivating Capstones is an essential resource for faculty who teach or direct disciplinary or interdisciplinary capstone experiences as well as for faculty developers and administrators seeking ways to offer high quality high impact learning experiences for diverse student populations A Series on Engaged Learning and Teaching Book Visit the books companion website hosted by the Center for Engaged Learning for book resources The Facts on File Chemistry Handbook Diagram Group, 2009 Presents a basic reference guide to chemistry that includes a glossary brief biographies a chronology of important events in chemistry and a compendium of formulas A Counselor's Guide to Occupational Information , 1980 Trade and Industrial Education; Instructional Materials Ohio State University. These students tend to have lower academic preparation than white students which leads to higher levels of stress and anxiety as well as an increased placement in remedial courses which negatively impacts their graduation rates. As institutions become aware of these facts and take appropriate measures to improve educational experiences they must implement Transparency in Learning and Teaching TILT initiatives in order to provide equal access to education. Integrating Transparency in Learning and Teaching TILT: An Effective Tool for Providing Equitable Opportunity in Higher Education provides information on Transparency in Learning and Teaching TILT concepts and how they can be used in course development to improve student learning and performance. It focuses on bringing positive learning experiences to college students especially first generation students which can lead to higher levels of academic success. It strongly advocates for transparent education and provides guidance for overcoming the existing accessibility gap in higher education. Covering topics such as business education, online learning platforms and teaching modalities, this book is an indispensable resource for academicians, faculty developers, administrators, instructional designers, professors and researchers. Catalog of Copyright Entries, Third Series Library of Congress.
