When chaos erupts every person has a choice to make to decide whether it's the worst time of life to find comfort in the way things used to be to move on because change is forced and then resent everything that happens or to say: This can be the best time of my life. I can try the things I wanted to do but never did. In Making Sense When Life Doesn't Cecil Murphey's compelling stories, hope-filled insights and gentle encouragement move readers with messy lives to the stunning realization that life won't ever be perfect but it can be good, even exciting.
