Roger Fisher 1922-2012 was an American at Harvard Law School With his wife founded the Harvard Negotiation Project William Ury an anthropologist who works as a negotiator worldwide Bruce Patton a Harvard professor and former Vice President of the firm that handles their negotiations

INTRODUCTION Think about it imagine but just a few decades ago decisions were made almost exclusively by one person whoever won the argument then the world was a hierarchy that made every decision by the few and the rest of the world dictated by them But today the world is increasingly run by people who are flatter and more democratic In the past the few parents can negotiate Don't do this unless you have the authority to find a solution and negotiate with suppliers or negotiating international arms embargos

and the few are more likely to reach other agreements If we have the right knowledge and tools you will see the outcomes fall into place And every day of our lives we negotiate with all sorts of people Learn to negotiate well and you will be successful in every area of your life
