Russell, Stewart Waters, 2017-01-01 Action Film is a common and powerful element in the social studies classroom and Cinematic Social Studies explores teaching and learning social studies with film Teaching with film is a prominent teaching strategy utilized by many teachers on a regular basis Cinematic Social Studies moves readers beyond the traditional perceptions of teaching film and explores the vast array of ideas and strategies related to teaching social studies with film The contributing authors of this volume seek to explain through an array of ideas and visions what cinematic social studies can should look like while providing research and rationales for why teaching social studies with film is valuable and important This volume includes twenty four scholarly chapters discussing relevant topics of importance to cinematic social studies The twenty four chapters are divided into three sections This stellar collection of writings includes contributions from noteworthy scholars like Keith Barton Wayne Journell James Damico Cynthia Tyson and many more On Shame Michael Morgan, 2011-04-06 Shame is one of a family of self conscious emotions that includes embarrassment guilt disgrace and humiliation On Shame examines this emotion psychologically and philosophically in order to show how it can be a galvanizing force for moral action against the violence and atrocity that characterize the world we live in Michael L Morgan argues that because shame is global in its sense of the self the moral failures of all groups in which we are a member including the entire human race reflect on each person individually Drawing on historical and current affairs to explore the emotion of shame as well as films such as Night and Fog Hotel Rwanda and Life is Beautiful and the work of Primo Levi Bernard Williams and Stanley Cavell Michael Morgan illustrates how moral responsibility can be facilitated by calling upon an emotional reaction that is familiar complex and central to our conception of ourselves as individuals and as members of society Balkan

Ghosts Robert D. Kaplan, 2014-04-01 A new edition of the classic travelogue exploring the Balkan Peninsula's political, social, religious, and economic past. From the assassination that triggered World War I to the ethnic warfare in Serbia, Bosnia, and Croatia, the Balkans have been the crucible of the twentieth century, the place where terrorism and genocide first became tools of policy. Chosen as one of the Best Books of the Year by the New York Times and greeted with critical acclaim as the most insightful and timely work on the Balkans to date, Boston Globe Kaplan's prescient, enthralling, and often chilling political travelogue is already a modern classic. This new edition of Balkan Ghosts includes six opinion pieces written by Robert Kaplan about the Balkans between 1996 and 2000, beginning just after the implementation of the Dayton Peace Accords and ending after the conclusion of the Kosovo war with the removal of Slobodan Milosevic from power. Praise for Balkan Ghosts: The product of over a decade of travel and research, this is one of the precious few works that allows a Western reader a look into the tortured soul of the Balkan peoples. A superior narrative, Kaplan is a master of this genre. Library Journal A memorable portrait of an increasingly important region. Kirkus Review

Teaching the Holocaust Michael Gray, 2015-05-15 Teaching the Holocaust is an important but often challenging task for those involved in modern Holocaust education. What content should be included and what should be left out? How can film and literature be integrated into the curriculum? What is the best way to respond to students who resist the idea of learning about it? This book, drawing upon the latest research in the field, offers practical help and advice on delivering inclusive and engaging lessons, along with guidance on how to navigate through the many controversies and considerations when planning, preparing, and delivering Holocaust education. Whether teaching the subject in History, Religious Education, English, or even in a school assembly, there is a wealth of wisdom which will make the task easier for you and make the learning experience more beneficial for the student. Chapters include: The aims of Holocaust education; Ethical issues to consider when teaching the Holocaust; Using film and documentaries in the classroom; Teaching the Holocaust through literature; The role of online learning and social media; The benefits and practicalities of visiting memorial sites; With lesson plans, resources, and schemes of work which can be used across a range of different subjects, this book is essential reading for those that want to deepen their understanding and deliver effective, thought-provoking Holocaust education. Foreign Policy Steve Smith, Amelia Hadfield, Timothy Dunne, 2016 The only introduction to foreign policy to combine theories, actors, and cases in one volume

Dangerous Surrender Kay Warren, 2007 A rare book by an uncommon woman, Dangerous Surrender dares readers to go deeper with God and his purposes on earth. War, Revolution and Remembrance in World Cinema Nancy J. Membrez, 2021-05-15 Two World Wars engulfed Europe, Asia, and the United States, leaving indelible scars on the landscape and survivors. The trauma of civil wars in Spain, declared, and Latin America, tacit, spanned decades yet contradictorily bind parties together even today. Civil wars still haunt Africa, where in more recent years ethnic cleansing has led to wholesale genocide. Drawing on the emerging field of Memory Studies, this book examines narrative and documentary films made far from Hollywood that address memory both traumatic and nostalgic surrounding these conflicts despite attempts by special interests to erase or manipulate history Ghosts of Archive Verne Harris,2020-12-21 Ghosts of Archive draws on the discourses of deconstruction intersectionality and archetypal psychology to mount an argument that archive is fundamentally and structurally spectral and that the work of archive is justice Drawing on more than 20 years of the author s research on deconstruction and archive the book posits archive as an essential resource for social justice activism and as a source or location of soul for individuals and communities Through explorations of what Jacques Derrida termed hauntology Harris invites a listening to the call for justice in conceptual spaces that are non disciplinary He argues that archive is both constructed in relation to and beset by ghosts ghosts of the living of the dead and of those not yet born and that attention should be paid to them Establishing a unique nexus between a deconstructive intersectionality and traditions of memory for justice in struggles against oppression from South Africa and elsewhere the book makes a case for a deconstructive praxis in today s archive Offering new ideas about spectrality banditry and archival activism Ghosts of Archive should appeal to those working in the disciplines of archival science information studies and psychology It should also be essential reading for those with an interest in social justice issues transitional justice history philosophy memory studies and postcolonial studies An Introduction to the Criminology of Genocide William R. Pruitt,2021-01-15 This textbook provides an accessible and interdisciplinary introduction to genocide with an emphasis on the criminal aspect of genocide It draws on sociological political and historical concepts to discuss how they contribute to our understanding of genocide as an international crime It walks students through the evolution of genocide as a criminal act and the legal responses available using case studies to demonstrate how concepts work in action It combines Criminology and Law arguing that Criminology can help explain the why and how while Law can explain the responses to crime This textbook includes a chapter on genocide denial as well as discussion questions at the end of the chapters boxed examples and further reading It speaks to students in Criminology Law Socio Legal Studies and beyond as well as to practitioners in the criminal justice field Dian's Ghost Justine

Saracen,2016-03-15 Dana Norland shoots two men in cold blood and flees the US for the mountains of Rwanda Posing as a biologist she finds herself caring for gorillas with Kristen Dian Fossey s successor at the Karisoke research center She has plenty of time to think about what she s done but can she find peace Apparently not for the mountain is haunted both by the ghost of Dian Fossey and by the men who murdered her Personal vendetta joins with genocide and to flee the marauding butchers the women hide in the rainforest Among the mountain gorillas they once protected they learn what justice is And what it is not Ghost Watch David Rollins,2010-01-10 Special Agent Vin Cooper is feeling reckless He volunteers for the dumbest and most dangerous job going personal security operations in Afghanistan protecting bent politicians But when his principal is killed in a suicide bomb attack Cooper is reassigned to a cushy job nursing a couple of needy African American entertainers putting on a show for US military advisors at a secret base in Rwanda Or so he thinks Things go horribly wrong

when their United Nations chopper is forced down in the Democratic Republic of Congo in the middle of an all out firefight by opposing forces The nightmare only intensifies when some of Cooper's people including one of the entertainers are captured While risking his life to rescue his principals Cooper spies a US DoD advisor in the enemy encampment which is awash with American weaponry It seems that their forced landing in this inhospitable place was no accident

The Questions of Jesus John Dear, 2007-12-18 This illuminating examination of the Gospels reveals how the questions Jesus asks of his followers lead the way to a deeper understanding of the meaning of life and the mystery of God The Gospels are filled with stories parables miracles commandments and dramatic incidents that trace Jesus' life and recount his teachings A close reading of the Gospels reveals however that they are also filled with questions As John Dear points out in this remarkable book Jesus like any great teacher and rabbi has a question for everyone he meets for every occasion for every experience for every potential disciple Dear uses these questions as a starting point an invitation to readers to discover the lessons they contain by searching their own hearts and minds for answers Throughout The Questions of Jesus Dear interweaves insights from ethical and religious teachers ranging from Buddha to Gandhi to Martin Luther King Jr Using recent events as powerful and poignant examples he shows why a renewed commitment to Jesus' message of nonviolence compassion justice and peace is essential to healing a world torn by violence and war

Evoking Genocide Adam Jones, 2009 Evoking Genocide compiles more than sixty short essays written by leading scholars and activists in the field of genocide studies These authors pay eloquent tribute to the works of art and media that influenced their engagement with genocide and crimes against humanity The subjects include books and stories films songs drawings documents monuments sculptures personal testimonies and even a Lego set In an accessible and often deeply personal way contributors explore their own relationships with the works in question Edited by Adam Jones recently selected as one of fifty key thinkers in Holocaust and genocide studies Evoking Genocide makes an important contribution to the study of the art and culture of mass atrocity

NEW RWANDA From Hell to Heaven Patricia Bamurangirwa, 2019-04-09 A small country in the heart of Africa Rwanda is a country of unity and patriotism But less than 30 years ago Rwanda was rocked by terrible genocide Over a million people perished in cruel and horrible situations Faced with suggestions that the whole country should be wiped out and divided up amongst neighbouring nations the Rwanda Patriotic Front began a journey to stop the genocide reunite the nation and fight for their future In New Rwanda From Hell to Heaven Patricia Bamurangirwa recounts this history examining how Rwanda chose hope over hate and grew from the ashes of genocide to become a global role model She explores how Rwandans embarked on a journey full of sacrifices and patriotism to build their present and their future

A Rwandan Bishop's Confession Joel Kubwimana, 2021-08-12 In this book I analyze why Bishop Aloys Bigirumwami prioritizes the use of the native language and the value of primal religions in spreading the gospel According to Bigirumwami the gospel should be taught in the native language because it is the people's heart language On the other hand when the message is spoken in non-native languages the gospel may spread but it does not reach the hearts of the people As for the primal religions tradition religions for Bigirumwami they are part of what Jesus came to fulfill rather than abolish In Rwanda Western missionaries neglected the Rwandan primal religions by demonizing them and the result was that the gospel was not planted in the good soil the reason why the genocide against the Tutsi was executed in 1994 in a country where 91 percent of its population were Christians A part of exploring the Christian mission history in Rwanda this book points out the need to continue where Bigirumwami and others of his time left off in their effort of inculturation of the Christian faith in Rwanda and Africa in general War in a Time of Peace David Halberstam,2001 Halberstam evokes the internecine conflicts the untrammelled egos and the struggles for dominance among the key figures in the White House the State Department and the military The Blood Latitudes William Harrison,2000 After his son disappears while on assignment in Africa Will Hobbs risks his life to venture inside the borders of civil war ravaged Rwanda to find him Wilson's Ghost Robert S. McNamara,James G. Blight,2001-06-06 President Kennedy's former Secretary of Defense Robert McNamara and coauthor Blight international studies Brown U offer suggestions as to how the United States could and should change its foreign policy and defense policy to incorporate the core objectives of post WWI Wilsonian ideals They suggest that the United States make the end of war a major goal of foreign policy and argue that while the U S will have to provide leadership it must not apply its economic political or military policy unilaterally In order to successfully maintain a peaceful world they believe that a complete rapprochement with China and Russia is necessary in order to prevent the real dangers of Great Power conflict In addition they offer suggestions towards strengthening the U N in a move towards true multilateralism in the reduction of communal violence and the threat from nuclear weapons c Book News Inc The Black Atlantic's triple burden Adekeye Adebajo,2025-06-10 This volume demonstrates the continuities of five centuries of European slavery and colonialism in Africa the Caribbean and the Americas examining calls for reparations in all three regions for crimes against humanity Authored by eminent scholars largely based in these areas it contributes to transforming educational curricula globally This collection is a comprehensive multidisciplinary and enables cross regional comparisons to be drawn ensuring that important global events are read from diverse perspectives The volume is aimed at subject area experts as well as students in diverse areas of the humanities and beyond who seek a sound introductory reference book to these important historical subjects to which they are often not exposed The authors thus represent a multi disciplinary group encompassing diverse fields such as history international relations politics economics sociology anthropology literature and languages The book introduces readers to foreign language historical sources often inaccessible to an English speaking audience on these pivotal topics
