Teaching Australian Literature Brenton Doecke,Larissa McLean Davies,Philip Mead,2011 What role should Australian literature play in the school curriculum What principles should guide our selection of Australian texts To what extent should concepts of the nation and a national identity frame the study of Australian writing What do we imagine Australian literature to be How do English teachers go about engaging their students in reading Australian texts This volume brings together teachers teacher educators creative writers and literary scholars in a joint inquiry that takes a fresh look at what it means to teach Australian literature The immediate occasion for the publication of these essays is the implementation of The Australian Curriculum English which several contributors subject to critical scrutiny In doing so they question the way that literature teaching is currently being constructed by standards based reforms not only in Australia but elsewhere The essays assembled in this volume transcend the divisions that have sometimes marred debates about the place of Australian literature in the school curriculum They all recognise the complexity of what secondary English teachers do in their efforts to engage young people in a rich and meaningful curriculum They also highlight the need for both secondary and tertiary educators to cultivate an awareness of the cultural and intellectual traditions that mediate their professional practice and to encourage a critically responsive pedagogy Taking the PYP Forward Simon Davidson, Steven Carber, 2009 The International Baccalaureate Primary Years Programme stands in a proud tradition of reflective educators incorporating best practice into international schools For the PYP to maintain relevance in education today inquiry has to be rethought refreshed and reapplied Taking the PYP Forward does exactly that Raising many questions and recognising the new challenges facing educators this collaborative work brings together voices from both within and outside of the PYP Intending to broaden our view of inquiry and circulate fresh thinking about the relevance of the PYP for all areas of learning this is an essential contribution The School Librarian, 1996 Step Ahead 1 Textbook (Express/NA), Australian National Bibliography, 1996-12 Engaging Boys in Active Literacy William G. Brozo, 2019-05-23 Too many boys do not like to read are choosing not to read and are suffering academically as a result All concerned adults need to redouble their efforts to ensure that boys who bring the greatest challenges to our classrooms and schools receive responsive literacy texts and practices to increase their chances for academic personal and occupational success This book is more than a compendium of techniques it also provides an analysis of the research literature on central issues and related aspects of literacy and learning for boys The author identifies issues that impinge on boys literacy development and explores what the research literature has to say about these issues The descriptions of how teachers have used engaging texts and practices to help boys overcome low literacy engagement and skill in order to stay on course as readers and writers are highly informative and practical as models of best practice Storymen Hannah Rachel Bell, 2009-11-04 What do the artistic works of acclaimed author Tim Winton and eminent Ngarinyin lawman Bungul David Mowaljarlai have in common According to Hannah Rachel Bell they both reflect sacred relationship with the natural world the biological imperative of a male rite of passage an emergent urban tribalism and the fundamental role of story in the transmission of cultural knowledge In Bell's four decade friendship with Mowaljarlai she had to confront the cultural assumptions that sculpted her way of seeing The journey was life changing When she returned to teaching in 2001 Tim Winton's novels featured in the curriculum She recognised an eerie familiarity and thought Winton must have been influenced by traditional elders to express such an indigenous perspective She wrote to him This resulted in 4 years of correspondence and an excavation of converging world views exposed through personal memoir letters paintings and conversations and culminating in Storymen Cambridge Primary Checkpoints - Preparing for National Assessment 6 Andrew Woods, 2010-08-13 Cambridge Checkpoints study guides provide the most up to date exam preparation and revision available for VCE students Updated annually Cambridge Checkpoints give students the best chance
