

Mona Lisa Smile: Viewing a Film – With a Purpose!

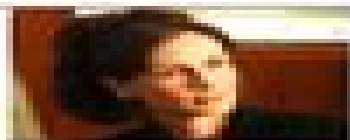

Answer the following questions after viewing the film Mona Lisa Smile. Use text evidence from the film to support your answers.

1. Sometimes an author develops a character by contrasting that character's two actions, or by juxtaposing one character's expectations with another character's actions. What do the actions of the Wellesley students suggest about a woman's role in society during this time period? What consequences does the Wellesley administration impose on those characters who do not follow the 1950's domestic tradition?
2. Authors can reveal information about the characters by describing the observations other characters make about them. Describe the decisions Mr. Watson makes about her teaching and her students. What do the Wellesley students say about Mr. Watson throughout the film? What does this suggest about Mr. Watson?
