

Analysis Of Reyna Grande s The Distance Between Me

In the memoir The Distance Between us, written by Reyna Grande in 2012, U.S., Reyna Grande told her story from childhood to adulthood, she described her relationship with her family and how it was affected by the distance between them. In her childhood, she was separated from her father and later from her mother, making her live with her grandmother Evila. A few years later, her mother, Juana, returned to Mexico, but she wasn't the same happy and sweet mother Reyna had remembered, and it was because Reyna's father got another woman. Later in the story, Reyna's father returned to Mexico and decided to take the kids with him to the U.S. In the second half of the memoir, Reyna described her life in the U.S., her experiences, the abuses she received and how she went through a lot of things to become a successful woman. At the ending of the story, she described her feelings towards her father in a bittersweet way: What was needed was something I was struggling to give my forgiveness. The day before my thirty sixth birthday, I found myself at my father's hospital bed as his life support was turned off. As I held my father's hand, and my life with him flashed through my mind, I thought about that question I had often asked myself: If had known what life with my father would be like, would I still followed him to El Otro Lado? You made me who I am, I thought as he took his last breath. And I knew then that the answer to my question was yes (322, Grande). The Distance
