Dialogue Editing for Motion Pictures John Purcell, 2012-11-12 Dialogue editing is a crucial yet invisible part of filmmaking. Do it right and no one notices. Do it wrong and your film or video sounds messy distracting and unrealistic. This is a book for people who need to edit production sound for film TV or video but were never taught how to do it. It goes step by step through the process and covers all the workflows you are likely to encounter. Efficient working practices are emphasized throughout so you learn to save time and avoid needless repetition. Many dialogue editors are hobbled by a lack of understanding of the non sound aspects of filmmaking. Unlike editors who cut effects backgrounds or Foley a dialogue editor's work is directly affected by what has gone on before. How a film was shot recorded and edited will dramatically influence the dialogue editing process. Much of this book then deals with things which at first glance don't appear to be dialogue. You will find overviews of film picture and sound postproduction film tape NTSC PAL 24p and HD. There are summaries of film picture editing OMF manipulation and ADR management. Turning Training into Learning Sheila W. Furjanic, Laurie A. Trotman, 2000-03-01 Just as you can lead a horse to water but it won't necessarily drink so you can give an employee training but he may not actually learn unless of course the trainer uses this insightful new book Turning Training into Learning provides a specific tested method for making sure training equals real learning. Written for anyone who must train others this step by step guide shows exactly how to create a program that engages trainees and ensures that they remember and use what they've learned when they get back to work. Readers learn how to Analyze exactly what a particular trainee needs.

Establish a safe environment where questions are welcomed Demonstrate to learners why the training is relevant to them Understand the process by which adults learn Place real learning within the context of the traditional training cycle assessment design delivery and evaluation
