Assisted Living Nursing Ethel Mitty, Barbara Resnick, 2009-07-13 Designated a Doody's Core Title

Caring for the older adult population is a challenge and the goal of nursing practice is to help preserve or restore an older adult's function and maximize their well being and quality of life. This book is a wonderful resource for assisted living clinicians and nurses who wish to serve this population. It is well written, easy to read, and well organized so it can be used as a textbook for nursing students in geriatric nursing. Score 94 4 stars Doody's. This book, written by and for nurses across the spectrum of nurse providers, advanced practice nurses, delegating nurses, and the direct care workforce, covers all aspects of management as well as the many common clinical problems and syndromes we encounter among older adults. Further, this book proposes wonderful assessment and intervention material that will help the entire health care team keep residents within their AL communities through early recognition and management of acute illnesses. Kudos to our nursing colleagues for editing this publication and may it serve as the useful guide for AL residents across the country. John B. Murphy MD, President American Geriatrics Society, Professor of Medicine and Family Medicine, Warren Alpert Medical School of Brown University. This book provides a comprehensive overview of both management activities and clinical competencies for assisted living nurses. The authors provide practical guidelines and decision making models to help nurses address both the large and small scale challenges of their daily practice. With Assisted Living Nursing, readers can gain the essential problem solving and task management skills critical to their daily work. The contributors cover a wide range of topics including Management Ethics in nursing practice, Regulatory oversight and reimbursement, Organizational culture, Leadership theories and styles, Conflict resolution, Finance and budget management, Risk assessment, Clinical Practice, Admission, transfer, discharge, assessment, Infection Control, Cultural aspects of care, Geriatric clinical syndromes and disorders, Palliative and hospice care principles, Rehabilitation, restorative nursing, Theories of aging. Ultimately, this book serves as the definitive one stop resource addressing virtually every topic of interest to assisted living nurses.
