Queer TV China Jamie J. Zhao, 2023-02-16 The 2010s have seen an explosion in popularity of Chinese television featuring same sex intimacies LGBTQ identified celebrities and explicitly homoerotic storylines even as state regulations on vulgar and immoral content grow more prominent This emerging queer TV China culture has generated diverse cyber and transcultural queer fan communities Yet these seemingly progressive televisual productions and practices are caught between multilayered sociocultural and political economic forces and interests Taking queer as a verb an adjective and a noun this volume counters the Western centric conception of homosexuality as the only way to understand nonnormative identities and same sex desire in the Chinese and Sinophone worlds It proposes an analytical framework of queer ing TV China to explore the power of various TV genres and narratives censorial practices and fandoms in queer desire voicing and subject formation within a largely heteropatriarchal society Through examining nine cases contesting the ideals of gender sexuality Chineseness and TV production and consumption the book also reveals the generative negotiative ways in which queerness works productively within and against mainstream seemingly heterosexual oriented televisual industries and fan spaces This cornucopia of fresh and original essays opens our eyes to the burgeoning queer television culture thriving beneath official media crackdowns in China As diverse as the phenomenon it analyses Queer TV China is the spark that will ignite a prairie fire of future scholarship Chris Berry Professor of Film Studies King s College London This timely volume explores the various possibilities and nuances of queerness in Chinese TV and fannish culture Challenging the dichotomy of positive and negative representations of gender and sexual minorities Queer TV China argues for a multilayered and queer informed understanding of the production consumption censorship and recreation of Chinese television today Geng Song Associate Professor and Director of Translation Program University of Hong Kong
