Narrative, Literacy and Other Skills Edy Veneziano, Ageliki Nicolopoulou, 2019-05-15 In recent years narrative skills have been receiving increasing attention from researchers for their relevance in the development of language literacy and socio cognitive abilities This volume brings together studies focusing on two key issues in the development of children s narrative skills The first part of the Volume addresses the issue of the interrelatedness between narrative skills and literacy language and socio cognitive development as well as of the impact of narrative practices on the promotion of these different skills The second part of the Volume addresses the issue of how early interactional experiences particular contextual settings and specific intervention procedures can help children promote their narrative skills The studies span a wide age range from toddlers to late elementary school children concern different languages Dutch English French German Hebrew and Italian and consider narrative skills and practices from a rich variety of theoretical and methodological approaches Courting Migrants Katrina Burgess,2020-07-20 Migrants have for some time engaged in the politics of their homelands from a distance but as this book argues politicians are increasingly looking beyond their national boundaries for electoral and political support While migrants rarely cast decisive votes in homeland elections they are not marginal to homeland politics Courting Migrants looks at how extraterritorial outreach by homeland states and parties alters the boundaries of political membership and intersects with migrant agency to transform politics at home It addresses three specific questions under what conditions and in what ways do homeland authorities reach out to migrants How do these migrants respond And to what extent does their response affect homeland governance Katrina Burgess argues that globalization and the spread of democracy since the 1970s have encouraged politicians in the Global South to reach out to migrants in search of economic resources foreign policy support and or electoral advantage They do so by cultivating feelings of loyalty that induce some kinds of migrant engagement while discouraging others Whether or not these politicians succeed depends on where migrants are located how many resources they have what kinds of identities they value and why they left their homeland in the first place This interaction between outreach and engagement has implications in turn for how migrants are responding to the current wave of populism and authoritarianism around the globe The book is based on in depth research on state migrant relations in four high migration countries Turkey Dominican Republic Philippines and Mexico Integrating Visual System Mechanisms,
