

A close-up, high-angle shot of the robot Ava from the movie Ex Machina. She has a human-like face with blue eyes and is looking down with a somber expression. Her neck and upper chest are visible, showing a complex, metallic, and mesh-like structure with glowing blue lights. The background is a blurred, modern interior with large windows.

Greek Theatre in the Fourth Century BC Eric Csapo, Hans Rupprecht Goette, J. Richard Green, Peter Wilson, 2014-06-18 Age old scholarly dogma holds that the death of serious theatre went hand in hand with the death of the city state and that the fourth century BC ushered in an era of theatrical mediocrity offering shallow entertainment to a depoliticised citizenry The traditional view of fourth century culture is encouraged and sustained by the absence of dramatic texts in anything more than fragments Until recently little attention was paid to an enormous array of non literary evidence attesting not only the sustained vibrancy of theatrical culture but a huge expansion of theatre throughout and even beyond the Greek world Epigraphic historiographic iconographic and archaeological evidence indicates that the fourth century BC was an age of exponential growth in theatre It saw the construction of permanent stone theatres across and beyond the Mediterranean world the addition of theatrical events to existing festivals the creation of entirely new contexts for drama and vast investment both public and private in all areas of what was rapidly becoming a major industry This is the first book to explore all the evidence for fourth century ancient theatre its architecture drama dissemination staging reception politics social impact finance and memorialisation

The Conceptual Worlds of the Fourth Gospel Charles B. Puskas, C. Michael Robbins, 2021-01-08 Over and under and through John's story of Jesus are unforgettable ideas and concepts profoundly simple and simply profound for the author's own audience and beyond These ideas did not originate in a vacuum They have recurred and been repeated before and after the writing of the Fourth Gospel For this reason we will examine the meaning of its words and themes in the context of its Jewish Greco Roman milieu Much of our intertextual understanding will be derived from alleged parallels that involve comparisons of similar vocabulary and phrases as well as parallel concepts and images from the Old Testament the Dead Sea Scrolls Philo and other relevant writings Such parallels will help to determine the meaning of a word or expression the translation of a particular language determining any direct influences upon the Fourth Gospel parallel traditions or the influence of its ideas as a creative and inspiring work of later antiquity
