

HOW TO WRITE A DESCRIPTIVE ESSAY

WHAT IS A DESCRIPTIVE ESSAY?

A descriptive essay is one which is used in order to describe something. These essays can describe anything from a person or place to an item or idea. The idea of the descriptive essay is to give the author a chance to hone their writing skills by way of description. On top of this, the descriptive essay is a great chance for the author to use their creative skills - the more vivid the description, the more the reader can picture clearly what is being talked about. This means that the writer should employ all their skills to paint an image for the audience.

HOW TO WRITE A DESCRIPTIVE ESSAY

➡ Choose A Topic

Any essay requires an engaging topic and the descriptive essay is no exception to this rule. When choosing a topic, you should choose something which you have an interest in as this will make you more passionate about your writing.

- Describe a summer holiday.
- Describe your oldest memory.
- Describe a member of your family.
- Describe a book you have read.
- Describe a movie you have seen.
- Describe an invention.
- Describe a place that means a lot to you.

➡ Create An Thesis Statement

A thesis statement is used to lay out the purpose of the essay and should be referred back to at varying points throughout your writing. It should be included in the introduction so that your readers are clear on what the essay is about.

➡ Speak To The Senses

When planning your essay it is important to remember that a descriptive essay should appeal to the senses. When describing your subject you should include how it looks, smells, how things taste, what can be heard and how something feels. It is important to lay out these senses in your essay outline as using these will create a much clearer picture for the reader.

➡ Create Your Essay Outline

An essay outline is used to order your ideas and make rough notes of anything that is to be included in the work. Every essay should be written with the assistance of an essay outline, and it should look something like this:

- Introduction - Include your thesis statement, a hook to grab the attention of the reader (this could be a personal story, anecdote, joke or fact) and a little bit about the purpose of the essay.
- Body 1st paragraph - This section will detail the first point of your essay. In the case of a descriptive essay, you might detail how something looks in the first paragraph. A traditional essay is made up of three body paragraphs and each of these should be outlined too. That being said, there is some leeway when writing an essay and you can write more or less body paragraphs depending on what you need.
- Conclusion - This final part of your essay outline should refer back to the thesis statement and sum up all the ideas which have been presented throughout the essay.

FURTHER TIPS FOR WRITING A DESCRIPTIVE ESSAY

In order to write a clear, concise and easy to read descriptive essay, there are some more points that you should consider whilst writing. These tips will help you to construct an essay which will be well received and credited.

- Make sure that you take the time to properly brainstorm before you begin writing your descriptive essay. This is important because it will help you to make sure that you include all of your ideas and miss nothing out.
- The language that you use within your essay should be concise and clear, making it easy for the reader to get a grasp of. Whilst you want to use colourful descriptions that easily paint a picture, you do not want to over-complicate the language and therefore make the essay unreadable.
- Consider using synonyms (understandable ones) to make your writing sound more intelligent and creative. These will also add to the descriptive flair of this type of essay.

A Handbook for Analytical Writing William E. Winner, 2022-05-31 This handbook accelerates the development of analytical writing skills for high school students, students in higher education and working professionals in a broad range of careers. This handbook builds on the idea that writing clarifies thought and that through analytical writing comes improved insight and understanding for making decisions about innovation necessary for socioeconomic development. This short handbook is a simple comprehensive guide that shows differences between descriptive writing and analytical writing and how students and teachers work together during the process of discovery-based learning. This handbook provides nuts and bolts ideas for team projects, organizing writing, the process of writing, constructing tables, presenting figures, documenting, reference lists, avoiding the barriers to clear writing and outlines the importance of ethical issues and bias for writers. Finally, there are ideas for evaluating writing and examples of classroom exercises for students and teachers.

Research and Writing in International Relations Laura Roselle, Joel T. Shelton, Sharon Spray, 2025-01-22 Research and Writing in International Relations Fourth Edition offers the step-by-step guidance and the essential resources needed to compose political science papers that go beyond description and into systematic and sophisticated inquiry. This book provides concise, easy-to-use advice to help students develop more advanced papers through step-by-step descriptions, examples, and resources for every stage of the paper writing process. The book focuses on areas where students often need guidance: understanding how international relations theory fits into research, finding a topic, developing a question, reviewing the literature, designing research, and last, writing the paper. Including current and detailed coverage on how to start research in the discipline's major subfields, Research and Writing in International Relations gives students a classroom-tested approach that leads to better research and writing in introductory and advanced classes. New to the Fourth Edition: Expanded guidance on formulating and refining effective research questions; Recommendations for navigating the use of information sources popular with students such as social networks, podcasts, and other digital media; Additional focus on areas of particular challenge for students such as avoiding plagiarism; Advice on how to responsibly use AI to assist in the research and writing process; Revised topic chapters that include updates to the scholarly literature and data sources; New resources on research topics of special interest to students including global climate change, international pandemic response, and democratic backsliding.

APA Style & Citations For Dummies Joe Giampalmi, 2021-04-09 Write right in for scholarly success. While world renowned for the precision and clarity it lends to scholarly writing, keeping track of APA style's exacting standards can be demanding at times, even excruciating for initiates and seasoned writers alike. Created and governed by the American Psychological Association, it provides a universal style for formatting citations and footnotes in psychological research, behavioral and social science journals, and beyond. Getting up to speed is tough stuff, but once you've got it, your work will have that easy-to-follow scholarly authority that will get high marks from your professors and peers alike. Your friendly, frustration-free guide for this adventure.

in simplifying APA style is Joe Giampalmi who has taught more than 100 APA style composition courses to college students. He takes the pain of following APA style away by breaking it down to its essential elements and focusing on the important stuff students encounter most. You'll work through specific real life examples of using APA style for psychology, criminology, business and nursing papers. In addition to demystifying the intricacies of formatting and citation, APA Style Citations For Dummies has got you covered in all matters of grammar and punctuation as well as guidance on how APA style can help you negotiate issues around the ethics of authorship and the importance of word choice in reducing bias. Develop conciseness and clarity. Pay attention to flow, structure and logic in your writing. Know when, why, how and what to cite. Keep your writing ethically conscious and bias free. Writing in APA style is something that almost all students will need to do at some point. APA Style Citations For Dummies is a must have desk reference to know how to win the approval of your professors and earn the marks you need for success.
