Facebook User Guide 2013:

The Complete Guide to Personal Digital Archiving Brianna H. Marshall, 2017-11-21 Featuring expert contributors working in a variety of contexts this resource will help you help your patrons take charge of their personal materials The Medical Library Association Guide to Providing Consumer and Patient Health Information Michele Spatz, 2014-05-01 Comprised of fifteen chapters written by experienced consumer health librarians The Medical Library Association Guide to Providing Consumer and Patient Health Information is designed for library and information science graduate students as well as librarians new to health and medical librarianship regardless of library setting It is comprehensive in scope covering all aspects of consumer and patient health and medical information from their humble grassroots beginnings to the ever evolving applications of new technology and social media In between the mundane aspects of health and medical librarianship such as needs assessment costs budgeting and funding and staffing are discussed Adding richness to this discussion are the coverage of more sensitive topics such as patient friendly technology ethical issues in providing consumer and patient health information meeting the needs of diverse populations and responding to individuals from various cultural backgrounds No comprehensive picture of consumer and patient health librarianship would be complete without addressing the critical importance of marketing and strategic partnerships such discussions round out this invaluable guide Patients today must be knowledgeable enough to participate in their health and well being Shorter hospital stays changing reimbursement patterns and the gradual shift towards focusing on proactively maintaining health and managing disease require patients to be informed and actively engaged Education information and understanding are important components of actively engaged patients Correspondingly in today's world there is a glut of information resources available through the Internet from YouTube videos to Googling to blogs and Twitter feeds What is lacking in these information rich times is the relevance of meaning and context for those who ask Does this health and medical information apply to me and my unique clinical picture or How do I use this information As knowledge navigators information technology wizards and content experts librarians offer focused responses to individuals specific and highly personal health and medical information queries In a new healthcare world order of optimizing health and minimizing hospitalizations such a service is invaluable Sadly there still exists in our highly networked and technological age an information gap for those who struggle in obtaining meaningful health or medical information These individuals may be foreign born non English speaking poor rural aged or semi literate Whatever their status librarians must have the wherewithal to find germane resources and also help create responsive mechanisms to bridge that health information gap for vulnerable citizens The Medical Library Association Guide to Providing Consumer and Patient Health Information will guide you on the road to providing that response The Practitioner's Guide to Product Management General Assembly, Jock Busuttil, 2015-01-06 This firsthand road map will tell you what it takes to create a product that meets a customer's needs and avoid the pitfalls of product failure Did you cut through traffic on your Segway today Cool off with a delicious can of New Coke Relax at home while listening to some music on your Zune Despite years of research countless products like these see high profile launches only to end up failing to connect with an audience The Practitioner s Guide to Product Management will help you create a lasting product and take you through the field of product management with candid stories and a litany of real world experiences Digital Methods for Social Science Steven Roberts, Helene Snee, Christine Hine, Yvette Morey, Hayley Watson, 2016-01-26 This timely book inspires researchers to deploy relevant effective innovative digital methods It explores the relationship of such methods to mainstream social science interdisciplinarity innovations in digital research tools the opportunities and challenges of digital methods in researching social life and digital research ethics Social Media Strategy Keith A. Quesenberry, 2015-10-22 Social Media Strategy is your guide to practicing marketing advertising and public relations in a world of social media empowered consumers Grounded in a refreshing balance of concept theory industry statistics and real world examples Keith Quesenberry introduces readers to the steps of building a complete social media plan and how companies can integrate the social media consumer landscape This simple systematic text leads readers through core marketing concepts and how to think critically about the competitive marketplace even as it shifts the perspective from an outdated communications control model to a more effective consumer engagement method provides a step by step roadmap for planning social media marketing strategy emphasizes the need to apply solid marketing principles to social media explores how to integrate social media throughout an entire organization gives students and other readers skills vital for leveraging consumer knowledge and influence for the good of a brand The end result delivers the context process and tools needed to create a comprehensive and unique social media plan for any business or organization FOR PROFESSORS Ancillary resources are available for this title including a sample syllabus and templates for social media audits content calendars storylines and more Connected Histories Eva Pfanzelter, Dirk Rupnow, Éva Kovács, Marianne Windsperger, 2024-09-23 The World Wide Web WWW and digitisation have become important sites and tools for the history of the Holocaust and its commemoration Today some memory institutions use the Internet at a high professional level as a venue for self presentation and as a forum for the discussion of Holocaust related topics for potentially international transcultural and interdisciplinary user groups At the same time it is not always the established institutions that utilise the technical possibilities and potential of the Internet to the maximum Creative and sometimes controversial new forms of storytelling of the Holocaust or more traditional ways of remembering the genocide presented in a new way with digital media often come from people or groups who are not in the realm of influence of the large memorial sites museums and archives Such private stagings have experienced a particular upswing since the boom of social media This democratisation of Holocaust memory and history is crucial though it is as yet undecided how much it will ultimately reinforce old structures and cultural regional or other inequalities or reinvent them The Digital space as an arbitrary and limitless archive for the mediation of the Holocaust spanning from Russia to Brazil is at the centre of the essays collected in this volume This space is also considered as a forum for negotiation a meeting place and a battleground for generations and stories and as such offers the opportunity to reconsider the transgenerational transmission of trauma family histories and communication Here it becomes evident there are new societal intentions and decision making structures that exceed the capabilities of traditional mass media and thrive on the participation of a broad public

Harm to Others Brian Van Brunt, 2014-12-16 Harm to Others offers students and clinicians an effective way to increase their knowledge of and training in violence risk and threat assessment and it also provides a comprehensive examination of current treatment approaches Although the text includes many examples from K 12 and college university settings which are particularly relevant for mental health professionals in school settings the underlying concepts and suggestions are useful for counselors psychologists and social workers who face these issues in their daily practice In an easy to understand jargon free manner Dr Van Brunt shares his observations extensive clinical expertise and the latest research on what clinicians should be aware of when performing risk and threat assessments In addition he offers numerous examples from recent mass shootings and rampage violence to help explain the motivations and risk factors of those who make threats Two detailed case examples are presented to illustrate key concepts related to assessing dangerousness Treatment options are then described using a variety of diverse case studies to demonstrate concrete approaches for clients who have been identified as at risk for violence following a threat assessment Requests for digital versions from ACA can be found on www.wiley.com To purchase print copies please visit the ACA website Reproduction requests for material from books published by ACA should be directed to publications@counseling.org

Political Parties and Campaigning in Australia Glenn Kefford, 2021-02-15 Big data and microtargeting steal the headlines about campaigning But how important are they really to the way that political parties campaign This book provides a fine grained account of the campaign practices of three Australian political parties It explores how prevalent data driven campaigning is introduces an original theoretical framework to understand these practices and demonstrates that there is a disconnect between what Australian voters think about these issues and the way that parties campaign in the 21st century Drawing on 161 interviews participant observation and original survey data it shows that the reality of contemporary campaigning is often different to what we are led to believe

Beyond the Search Engine Liese Zahabi, 2024-12-24 Focusing on the user experience of online search this book explores the complex design at play and the ways social media platforms websites and other online interfaces have been created to provide information Author Liese Zahabi addresses three key questions How do users perceive search engines and what is their understanding of how they work What are the various user interface designs contemporary and historical that have created access points to search and how do these interfaces affect each other and a user's search process What do these designs and products say about our priorities and our relationships with information and other people This book weaves archival and contemporary examples of interface designs together with the results of user research conducted by the
