Curriculum Design in Special Education

Justine R. Kinnaird,2012 The purpose of this study was to depart from theory and focus on the realities of day to day decisions special education teachers are asked to make The chief purpose of this study was to gain insight into the factors that influence curriculum design such as high stakes testing teacher experience knowledge of content teacher training collaboration and materials In order to do so the researcher designed an on line survey that focused on curriculum design Additional information and insights were gleaned from the study For example were teachers using Common Core Standards CCS as a measuring stick when designing curriculum and choosing materials Were teachers employing best practices when designing curriculum Were teachers balancing priorities such as IEP goals high stakes tests and class pace Were students given the opportunity to gain access to and progress in the general education curriculum It is important to examine authentic day to day instructional decisions and activities in order to understand gaps between best practice research and legislative demands and actual classroom practices It was the hope of the researcher that this study would determine whether there was a need for more instructional materials and or further professional development for the special education staff members taking part in the study

Navigating Quality Assurance and Accreditation in Global Higher Education Kayyali, Mustafa,2024-12-13 As institutions strive to attract students from diverse backgrounds and compete on a global scale quality assurance frameworks ensure educational programs meet established regulations Accreditation processes validate institutional credibility while enhancing student confidence in their educational choices. However, with varying standards and practices across countries, the challenge lies in facilitating mobility, collaboration, and mutual recognition in organizations. By addressing these complexities, higher education institutions can promote quality, accountability, and continuous improvement, enhancing the value of education in a global context.

Navigating Quality Assurance and Accreditation in Global Higher Education explores the multifaceted landscape of quality assurance, accreditation processes, strategic management, and other critical elements within the realm of higher education. It delves into the challenges and opportunities faced by academic institutions as they strive for excellence in an ever-evolving educational landscape. This book covers topics such as online learning, quality assurance, and student engagement and is a useful resource for educators, administrators, policymakers, business owners, academicians, and researchers.

A Guide to the Diploma in Teaching and Related Qualifications by Lynn Senior, Neil Barnes, Joyce I-Hui Chen, Scott Clarke, Heather Sherman, 2025-02-28. This one-stop resource for trainee teachers within the Further Education and Skills Sector (FES) incorporates all the core requirements of the new Diploma in Teaching (DiT) for FES. Also fully linked to the occupational and professional standards developed for the FE teaching landscape, this book provides both new and existing teachers with information and support for a career in the sector as it is fully aligned with the latest government requirements. It emphasises what it means to be a teacher, the centrality of the learner, and the need for teaching to be less about the process and more about the personal. Content delves into a greater focus on subject-based pedagogy and on placements, as well as in-depth coverage of topics related to SEND, digital and online pedagogies, planning teaching and learning, and the final assessment viva. For readers to engage in critical reflection and apply knowledge to practice, the text is packed with critical thinking tasks at level 5 and extension tasks for those working at levels 6 and 7. Evidence-informed practice and research also underpin each chapter.

Key features: Covers all level 5 and beyond qualifications for the sector, incorporating the Diploma in Teaching and the Level 5 apprenticeship standards. Maps to the sector's occupational standards and professional standards and includes information on placements and the final assessment viva. Responds to the new emphases on subject pedagogy and the centrality of the learner in the learning process. Built in development with extensions to levels 6 and 7. Fully embraces digital and online pedagogies.
