Writing near the peak of the British Empire Conrad drew on the national experiences of his native Poland during nearly all his life parceled out among three occupying empires and on his own experiences in the French and British merchant navies to create short stories and novels that reflect aspects of a European dominated world including imperialism and colonialism and that profoundly explore the human psyche Conrad is considered a literary impressionist by some and an early modernist by others though his works also contain elements of 19th century realism His narrative style and anti heroic characters have influenced numerous authors Many dramatic films have been adapted from and inspired by his works Numerous writers and critics have commented that his fictional works written largely in the first two decades of the 20th century seem to have anticipated later world events

Unlike some other reproductions of classic texts 1 We have not used OCR (Optical Character Recognition) as this leads to bad quality books with introduced typos 2 In books where there are images such as portraits, maps, sketches, etc. We have endeavoured to keep the quality of these images so they represent accurately the original artefact. Although occasionally there may be certain imperfections with these old texts, we feel they deserve to be made available for future generations to enjoy.

world the latter often ignored in English language editions The Annotated Arabian Nights expands the visual dimensions of the stories revealing how the Nights have always been and still are in dialogue with fine artists With a poignant autobiographical foreword from best selling novelist Omar El Akkad and an illuminating afterword on the Middle Eastern roots of Hanna Diyab s tales from noted scholar Robert Irwin Horta and Seale have created a stunning edition of the Arabian Nights that will enchant and inform both devoted and novice readers alike The National Union Catalog, Pre-1956 Imprints ,1968
