Flashes Of Emotion A Collection Of Poems:

The Conspiracy of Silence Augustine Sam, 2015-09-30 A hypnotic political thriller with an epic courtroom showdown The conscience of a town steeped in sexism vanity and hypocrisy is pricked by the brutal murder of a mysterious woman in a park in Los Angeles The shock is transformed into a steamy seductive scandal when the body turns out to be that of Susan Whitaker the flamboyant wife of the governor of California Soon a dazzlingly intricate shuffle of volatile links leads the police to the delicate theory of secret lover blackmailer and to the indictment of Benjamin Carlton Hollywood's most influential black celebrity Then curious things begin to happen when Carlton's ambitious girlfriend Rita Spencer suddenly unearths the shocking secret that Susan Whitaker did not in fact exist Little does anyone realize that this colossal fraud is a mere curtain raiser to a chilling world of ugly skeletons dating back to the assassination of a U S senator in a Washington hotel sauna skeletons connected to riveting sex scandals in high places skeletons the FBI and political kingmakers will kill for A

Flash of Insight and Other Poems David J de Young, 2016-10-29 The collected poems of David J de Young most previously unpublished 70 poems touching on topics from Elvis to Hostess Twinkies to late life fatherhood This is David de Young's first anthology of poetry assembled from poems written over thirty three years from 1984 to 2017 Take Back the Memory

Augustine Sam, 2017-12-09 An intellectual emotional look into a broken mind Paige Lyman an accomplished psychiatrist is on the verge of madness but she doesn't know it yet The madness begins when she gets it into her head to write her memoirs As her brilliant mind assembles bits and pieces of her life for the book ugly skeletons long forgotten in the closet begin to rear their heads It had all begun with a simple act of love And love for her was a blond haired Irish boy named Bill so when Bill abandoned her for priesthood the world around her collapsed Seized by a different passion vengeance she seeks her proverbial pound of flesh in the beds of various priests But that is before she meets Stern W a medical researcher who sweeps into her life like a hurricane and marries her and they live happily ever after until he dies in a helicopter crash and she discovers the startling truth about who he really was Take Back The Memory is the saga of her compelling backward journey through her own life on a psychotherapist's couch Rain In the Wind "A Collection of Art and Poetry" Deneene

Collins, 2011-08-20 Rain in the Wind brilliantly transforms two of the most life giving elements in the universe water and air so they can be presented to you in a poetic and artistic form The distinct relationship between poetry art and nature is displayed in a way that will heighten the passion of your awareness for what is truly beautiful This piece of a literary dream touches the senses of humanity with enlightenment and a great refreshing for dry and weary souls Rain in the Wind is an innovative collaborative work that shares the art of Dhanaraj Keezhara of India and the poetic and inspirational writings of local Tucson AZ author Deneene A Collins The artwork exhibited in this book are embellished by the lively words that describe them and communicate their deep seated meanings The overall theme of this collection of creative masterpieces is the theoretical effect of rain upon our lives In this book you will see pictures and read words that detail the influences and expressions of rain Science in Modern Poetry John Holmes, 2012-01-01 Over the last thirty years more and more critics and scholars have come to recognize the significant influence of science on literature This collection of essays focuses specifically on what poets in the twentieth and twenty first centuries have made of modern scientific developments In these twelve essays leading experts on modern poetry literature and science explore how poets have used scientific language in their poems how poetry can offer new perspectives on science and how the two cultures can and have come together in the work of poets from Britain Ireland America and Australia The Poets and Poetry of America ... Seventeenth Edition ... Enlarged and Continued to the Present Time. With Portraits on Steel, Etc Rufus Wilmot GRISWOLD, 1856 The Poets and Poetry of America ... With Additions by R. H. Stoddard. Carefully Revised, Much Enlarged, and Continued to the Present Time, Etc Rufus Wilmot GRISWOLD, 1872 Flickering Flame DR. K.H. LIM, 2014-04 Flickering Flame Poetic Echoes presents a collection of poetry written by a doctor on the verge of retirement Writing under the pen name Wonky Wizard he divides his work into several sections including musings relationship social and political topics and children He also provides four translations of Chinese classical poems into English Most of his original works personal musings on life and family were written over the course of a year between consultations at his clinic He wrote in response to his friends comments and clients problems and to consider family events revealing his honest thoughts and feelings on these and other topics From an examination of his feelings about death and dying in Bucket List and Farewell to a Friend to his feelings about children in Sharing and Why he offers his perspective on a wide range of subjects Writing to evoke interest in English among students in Malaysia to connect with other poets and to offer a gift to his daughter and grandchildren the poet turns to the universality of poetry the shared pool of emotions from which it is drawn to help us see echoes of ourselves in other narratives And now he invites you to be a spectator of his journey The Poets and Poetry of America, to the Middle of the Nineteenth Century ... Eleventh Edition, Revised, with Illustrations Rufus Wilmot GRISWOLD, 1851 A Flash of Golden Fire Thomas Elsner, 2025-05-01 In the early twentieth century C G Jung survived an intense encounter with the unconscious He did this by giving expression to his inner world in the paintings and dialogues found in the Red Book Yet Jung felt alone in this work unable to find a precedent or cultural parallel until he discovered alchemy This ancient protoscience became the bridge Jung had been seeking between the remote past and the present Yet between the downfall of alchemy in the eighteenth century and Jung s Red Book in the twentieth it seems that there was a gap in the tradition According to Jungian analyst and author Thomas Elsner Samuel Taylor Coleridge s great visionary poem The Rime of the Ancient Mariner is another link in that golden chain In Elsner s analysis Coleridge s nineteenth century night sea journey can today be understood as a symbolic self portrait of the collective unconscious a self portrait that like the Red Book finds its historical context and continuity in the alchemical tradition Continuing the highly esteemed works arising from the Fay Lecture Series sponsored by the Jung Center Houston Elsner s A Flash of Golden Fire The Birth Death and Rebirth of the Modern Soul in Coleridge's The Rime of the Ancient Mariner promises to further extend the understanding and appreciation of Jungian principles for practitioners, analysts, others interested in Jungian theory and practice, the psychological dimensions of Romantic poetry, and the evolution of Western consciousness. The Flemmings And "Flash Harry" Of Savait Louis Becke, 2022-09-16 In The Flemmings and Flash Harry of Savait Louis Becke intertwines adventure and social commentary within a richly descriptive narrative that reflects the complexities of Pacific Island life at the turn of the 20th century. Becke's prose is marked by a keen observational style as he vividly captures the vibrancy of cultural interactions and the impact of colonialism through the lives of his characters. The novel is steeped in the literary context of the time, drawing upon Becke's personal experiences navigating the islands, which imbues the story with authenticity and depth, making the reader acutely aware of the tensions between tradition and modernity, as well as the fluidity of identity in a changing world. Louis Becke, an Australian author and a sailor by trade, drew inspiration from his own voyages across the South Seas. His varied life experiences, including encounters with diverse Pacific communities, informed his writing, infusing his stories with genuine voices and lived realities. His background in navigation and engagement with different cultures enhances the narrative, providing a rich tapestry of context that underscores the thematic elements of his work. I highly recommend The Flemmings and Flash Harry of Savait to any reader interested in historical fiction that explores the influences of colonialism and cultural exchange. Becke's engaging storytelling, combined with his adept character development, makes this novel not only a captivating read but also a significant contribution to the understanding of Pacific Island narratives. Inspired Creative Writing: Flash Stephen May, 2011-06-24 The books in this bite-sized new series contain no complicated techniques or tricky materials, making them ideal for the busy, time-pressured or the merely curious. Inspired Creative Writing is a short, simple, and to the point guide to learning the basic principles of creative writing in a few short steps. Whether writing a novel, poetry, non-fiction, or just experimenting, in just 96 pages, you will discover how to master the essential principles and create captivating and memorable work. The Flickering Flame of Love Pasquale De Marco, 2025-07-15 Embark on an enchanting journey through The Flickering Flame of Love, a captivating exploration of ancient Egyptian love poetry that unveils the timeless emotions of the human heart. Within these pages, you will discover a treasure trove of delicate and evocative poems composed between 1305 and 1080 BCE, offering a rare glimpse into the intimate lives and passions of a people often portrayed as enigmatic and preoccupied with death. This remarkable collection of love lyrics invites you to delve into the diverse facets of human emotion, exploring the ecstatic heights of newfound love, the bittersweet pangs of separation, the fiery intensity of jealousy, and the profound wisdom gained through heartbreak. Prepare to be captivated by the raw passion, tender vulnerability, and enduring resilience of the human spirit as it navigates the tumultuous waters of romance. The poets of ancient Egypt, with their poignant words, paint a vivid tapestry of love's many hues. They capture the exhilarating rush of desire, the soul-stirring beauty of physical intimacy, and the profound connection that binds two hearts together. Through their verses you will witness the transformative power of love its ability to ignite hope heal wounds and inspire acts of selfless devotion More than mere historical artifacts these ancient love poems resonate with us today transcending the boundaries of time and culture They remind us that love in all its complexity and diversity is an integral part of the human experience We find solace in the shared experiences of joy sorrow and longing recognizing that love is a universal language that unites us all The Flickering Flame of Love is more than just a book it is a journey of discovery an exploration of the human heart in all its vulnerability and strength As you turn the pages you will be transported to a world where love reigns supreme where hearts beat in unison and where the flame of passion burns brightly Join us on this literary odyssey as we delve into the depths of ancient Egyptian love poetry Discover the beauty and fragility of love the power of desire and the enduring legacy of human connection Let these ancient voices serenade you with their timeless wisdom and remind you of the enduring flame of love that burns within us all If you like this book write a review

The Trembling Hand Mathelinda Nabugodi, 2025-07-29 A provocative revelatory history of British Romanticism that examines the impact of the transatlantic slave economy on the lives and times of some of our most beloved poets with urgent lessons for today A scrap of Coleridge's handwriting The sugar that Wordsworth stirred into his teacup A bracelet made of Mary Shelley's hair Percy Shelley's gilded baby rattle The death mask preserving Keats's calm face Byron's silk lined leather boot Who would have known there could be vast worlds contained in these items In a completely new interpretation of the Romantics and their context Whiting Award winning scholar and literary sleuth Mathelinda Nabugodi uses these items to frame her interrogation of the poets leading us on an expansive journey through time and memory situating us in depth of their world and her own Freedom liberty autonomy are the period's favorite words Nabugodi writes Romantic poets sought truth in the depth of their souls and in the mind's unbounded regions Ideals of free speech and human rights were being forged And yet the period was defined by a relentless commitment to the displacement and stolen labor of millions Romanticism she argues can no longer be discussed without the racial violence with which it was complicit Still rather than using this idea to rehash Black pain and subjugation she mines the archives for instances of resistance beauty and joy Nabugodi moves effortlessly between the past and present She takes us into the physical archives and with startling clarity unpacks her relationships with them what they are and should be who built them how they are entwined with an industry that was the antithesis of freedom and how she feels holding the materials needed to write this book as a someone whose ancestry is largely absent from their ledgers The Trembling Hand presents a dazzling new way of reading the past This transfixing evocative book reframes not only the lives of the legendary Romantics but also their poetry and the very era in which they lived It is a reckoning with art archives and academia bound to echo through the conversation for a long time to come
