Pluto Finds A Place

Pluto sighed. It had been a while since he'd heard about the change, but he was still having a hard time. No longer a planet. Oof! News like that felt like a meteor crashing right into his side. The other planets tried to stay friendly, but it was different now. Every time he crossed paths with Neptune, things were definitely awkward. He'd always been out on the edges, never quite fitting in with the other planets, but he'd never felt alone...until now. At least he had his moons. They were good buddies, even if they couldn't really understand what he was going through. He sighed again and watched the icy clouds of his breath drift into space. And then he heard a noise. It wasn't very loud, but someone was definitely calling to him! Pluto spun around. Out in the darkness, a gray shape was waving and shouting. "Hello, I'm Eris! I'm a dwarf planet just like you! Would you like to meet some friends?" Pluto peered more closely. There were other shapes like Eris—many others. And they were all smiling and waving. Maybe he wasn't on the edge of things anymore. In fact, it looked like he might be right in the middle of something new and wonderful.
