

The kingdom of Arendelle was a happy place, nestled among the mountains and the fjords. But the king and queen lived with a secret worry.

Their eldest daughter, Elsa, had a magical power. She could make snow and ice with her hands! Anna, their youngest daughter, adored her big sister and the two often played with Elsa's magical creations.

One night, their parents watched as the girls played in their room, pretending they were in a snowy enchanted forest.

"That's like no enchanted forest I've ever seen," said their father, King Agnarr.

The girls gasped. They couldn't believe their father had actually been inside an enchanted forest! Excitedly, they begged him to tell them all about it. They wanted to know every single detail.

Once Anna and Elsa had settled in their bed alongside their mother Queen Iduna, their father told them about the Enchanted Forest that lay far to the north of Arendelle, as far north as anyone could go. He mentioned that the spirits of nature protected the ancient forest and that in the woods there lived a mysterious people called the Northuldra. There, the Northuldra dwelled in harmony with the spirits.
