Full Metal Jacket:

Full Metal Jacket [videorecording]., 2009 Stanley Kubrick's "Full Metal Jacket". Portrayal of the Vietnam War Patrick Spieß, 2013-12-27 Seminar paper from the year 2013 in the subject English Language and Literature Studies Culture and Applied Geography grade 1.3 Martin Luther University language English abstract The Vietnam War was a traumatic event of the recent American history Due to harsh criticism both at home and abroad of the American involvement in Vietnam the film industry struggled to produce notable Vietnam War films during the conflict Only in the late 1970s Hollywood came up with significant films that were trying to come to terms with the past Down to the present day the film industry has produced a number of Vietnam War films What is special about these films is that they show a high level of diversity In this seminar paper I will examine how the Vietnam War is portrayed in Full Metal Jacket and outline its context in relation with other filmic presentations of the Vietnam War In particular I will focus on the drafting and military drill of young men as well as on the effects that the drill and the war itself had on recruits I will first introduce the historical event the film is dealing with and outline its filmic presentations and film historical context Then I will briefly introduce the film and provide information regarding its historical context The central question of this paper is which specific perspective is illustrated in Full Metal Jacket and to what extent the film can be classified along other Vietnam War films In resuming thoughts I will first establish what stance Full Metal Jacket takes towards the Vietnam War and how this perspective is created Finally I will introduce selected scenes and examine the method of the film in portraying the Vietnam War Forensic Science Stuart H.

James, Jon J. Nordby, Suzanne Bell, Jon J. Full Metal Jacket Stanley Kubrick, 2020 Defeated Masculinity Raya Morag, 2009 The burgeoning field of trauma and cinema is an exciting development within contemporary trauma studies The author of this book describes the complex relationship between cinema and the trauma of defeat in war An asymmetric and non binary comparison of two test cases post World War II New German Cinema and post Vietnam War American cinema illuminates the indirect and intriguing ways these societies have dealt with the enormous psycho cultural difficulty of acknowledging their defeat and understanding its manifold meanings This book draws on psychoanalysis masculinity studies and corporeal feminism to explore the bodily experience of defeat It examines themes and representations of body and sexuality to create a theoretical framework that reveals anew the link between defeated masculinity and nationalism Building on an original analysis of such varied films as The Deer Hunter Full Metal Jacket The Tin Drum and Paris Texas the author suggests new criteria that highlight the characteristics of post traumatic cinema

The Plague of Fantasies Slavoj Žižek,1997 Slavoj Zizek is without doubt one of the most stimulating and vibrant thinkers of our time and his idiosyncratic blend of Lacan and Hegel is always sparkling with insight and studded with amusing stories anecdotes and jokes In The Plague of Fantasies Zizek approaches another enormous subject with characteristic brio and provocativeness The current epoch is plagued by fantasms there is an ever intensifying antagonism between the process of ever greater abstraction of our lives whether in the form of digitalization or market relations and the deluge of pseudo concrete images which surround us Traditional critical thought would have sought to trace the roots of abstract notions in concrete social reality but today the correct procedure is the inverse from pseudo concrete imagery to the abstract process which structures our lives Ranging in his examples from national differences in toilet design to cybersex and from intellectuals responses to the Bosnian war to Robert Schumann s music Zizek explores the relations between fantasy and ideology the way in which fantasy animates enjoyment while protecting against its excesses the associations of the notion of fetishism with fantasized seduction and the ways in which digitalization and cyberspace affect the status of subjectivity To the already initiated The Plague of Fantasies will be a welcome reminder of why they enjoy Zizek s writing so much For new readers it will be the beginning of a long and meaningful relationship

is about the power to make war and to destroy lives It is also about another kind of power the power to make images that may distort displace and destroy knowledge of the times in which those lives were lived Many of the nineteen essays gathered in this volume are about the interrelationships between these two types of power They demonstrate as well yet another type of power the power of critical thinking to challenge dangerous myths and to confront prevailing ideologies The title of this anthology calls attention to the process whereby aspects of the Vietnam War have been appropriated by the American cultural industry Probing the large body of emotion laden controversial films From Hanoi to Hollywood is concerned with the retelling of history and the retrospection that such a process involves In this anthology an awareness of film as a cultural artifact that molds beliefs and guides action is emphasized an awareness that the contributors bring to a variety of films Their essays span over one hundred documentary and fiction films and include in depth analyses of major commercial films ranging from Apocalypse Now to Platoon Rambo First Blood Part II and Full Metal Jacket and documentaries from In the Year of the Pig to Dear America Letters Home from Vietnam The essays in this volume deal with representations of the Vietnam war in documentary film and television reporting examining the ways the power of film is used to deliver political messages There are surprises here new readings and important insights on the ways we as a society have attempted to come to terms with the experiences of the Vietnam era The book also contains two appendixes a detailed chronology charting the relationship between major historical events and the release of American war films from 1954 through 1988 and a filmography listing information on over four hundred American and foreign films about the Vietnam War

The Films of the Eighties William J. Palmer, 1995 In this remarkable sequel to his Films of the Seventies A Social History William J. Palmer examines more than three hundred films as texts that represent revise parody comment upon and generate discussion about major events issues and social trends of the eighties Palmer defines the dialectic between film art and social history taking as his theoretical model the holograph of history that originated from the New Historicist theories of Hayden White and Dominick LaCapra Combining the interests and methodologies of social history and film criticism Palmer contends that film is a socially conscious interpreter and commentator upon the issues of contemporary social history In the eighties such issues included the war in Vietnam the preservation of the American farm terrorism nuclear holocaust changes in Soviet American relations neoconservative feminism and yuppies Among the films Palmer examines are Platoon The Killing Fields The River Out of Africa Little Drummer Girl Kiss of the Spiderwoman Silkwood The Day After Red Dawn Moscow on the Hudson Troop Beverly Hills and Fatal Attraction Utilizing the principles of New Historicism Palmer demonstrates that film can analyze and critique history as well as present it

The Seeing Century Wendy Everett, 2000 The twentieth century with all its turbulence and change its conflicts and its discoveries was perhaps above all the century of cinema and The Seeing Century offers an innovative international and interdisciplinary exploration of the role cinema plays in contemporary life and culture and the complex and fascinating relationship between screen images and our changing concepts of personal and national identity Rejecting the compartmentalisation that has traditionally marked film studies and confronting an impressively eclectic range of material fifteen essays by leading academics from around the world cut across divergent cultures languages and genres mainstream Hollywood rubs shoulders with low budget Icelandic or Sicilian cinema and the popular and the esoteric feature alongside each other In this way the reader is offered a stimulating overview which directly addresses the contradictions and ambiguities inherent in the relationship between film and identity and reveals the vibrancy of contemporary film debate to which The Seeing Century makes an important and thought provoking contribution

Stanley Kubrick's Full Metal Jacket ,1987 Inventing Vietnam Michael A. Anderegg,1991 Testimony of the unique relationship between the U S Vietnam War and the images and sounds that have been employed to represent it The Philosophy of Stanley Kubrick Jerold Abrams,2007-05-04 In the course of fifty years director Stanley Kubrick produced some of the most haunting and indelible images on film His films touch on a wide range of topics rife with questions about human life behavior and emotions love and sex war crime madness social conditioning and technology Within this great variety of subject matter Kubrick examines different sides of reality and unifies them into a rich philosophical vision that is similar to existentialism Perhaps more than any other philosophical concept existentialism the belief that philosophical truth has meaning only if it is chosen by the individual has come down from the ivory tower to influence popular culture at large In virtually all of Kubrick s films the protagonist finds himself or herself in opposition to a hard and uncaring world whether the conflict arises in the natural world or in human institutions Kubrick s war films Fear and Desire Paths of Glory Dr Strangelove and Full Metal Jacket examine how humans deal with their worst fears especially the fear of death when facing the absurdity of war Full Metal Jacket portrays a world of physical and moral change with an environment in continual flux in which attempting to impose order can be dangerous The film explores the tragic consequences of an unbending moral code in a constantly changing universe Essays in the volume examine Kubrick s interest in morality and fate revealing a Stoic philosophy at the center of many of his films Several of the contributors find his oeuvre to be characterized by skepticism irony and unfettered hedonism In such films as A Clockwork Orange and 2001 A Space Odyssey Kubrick confronts the notion that we will struggle against our own scientific and technological innovations Kubrick s films about the future posit that an active form of nihilism will allow humans to accept the emptiness of the world and push beyond it to form a free and creative view of humanity Taken together the essays in The Philosophy of Stanley Kubrick are an engaging look at the director s stark vision of a constantly changing moral and physical universe They promise to add depth and complexity to the interpretation of Kubrick s signature films FULL Metal Jacket. [VHS Video Cassette - Duration 112 Minutes]. ,1993 The Bullet , Full Metal Jacket Diary Matthew Modine,2005 Mirroring his part as a Marine Corp journalist Modine recounts through words and photographs his experiences working with Stanley Kubrick on the film Full Metal Jacket Full Metal Jacket 1987 B.
