Fully Explain Nsfas:

Higher Education, 2023-11-02 COVID wrought havoc on the world's economic systems. Higher education did not escape the ravages brought on by the pandemic as institutions of higher education around the world faced major upheavals in their educational delivery systems. Some institutions were prepared for the required transition to online learning. Most were not. Whether prepared or not, educators rose to the challenge. The innovativeness of educators met the challenges as digital learning replaced the face-to-face environment. In fact, some of the distance models proved so engaging that many students no longer desire a return to the face-to-face model. As with all transitions, some things were lost while others were gained. This book examines practice in the field as institutions struggled to face the worst global pandemic in the last century. The book is organized into four sections: Perils and Promises, The State of Online Education, Goals and Challenges of Online Learning, and Innovations in the Age of COVID. It presents various perspectives from educators around the world to illustrate the struggles and triumphs of those facing new challenges and implementing new ideas to empower the educational process. These discussions shed light on the impact of the pandemic and the future of higher education post-COVID. Higher education has been forever changed, and higher education as it once was may never return. While many questions arise, the achievements in meeting and overcoming the pandemic illustrate the creativity and innovativeness of educators around the world who inspired future generations of learners to reach new heights of accomplishment even in the face of the pandemic.

Perspectives on Student Affairs in South Africa Speckman, McGlory, Mandew, Martin, 2014-07-17 The goal of Perspectives on Student Affairs in South Africa is to generate interest in student affairs in South Africa. The papers contained herein are based on best practice, local experience, and well-researched international and local theories. The papers in this book deal with matters pertaining to international and national trends in student affairs, academic development, access and retention, counseling, and material support for students coming from disadvantaged backgrounds. They are linked to national and international developments as described in the first two papers. This publication will assist both young and experienced practitioners as they grow into their task of developing the students entrusted to them. All contributors are South Africans with a great deal of experience in student affairs, and all are committed to the advancement of student affairs in South Africa. The editors are former heads of student affairs portfolios at two leading South African universities. Education in a New South Africa Robert J. Balfour, 2015-09-24 A collaborative series with the University of Cambridge Faculty of Education highlighting leading edge research across Teacher Education, International Education Reform, and Language Education.

Open Learning as a Means of Advancing Social Justice Tabisa Mayisela, Shanali Govender, 2024-01-23 This volume investigates the uptake of open learning in South African Technical Vocational Education and Training (TVET) colleges and higher education institutions. Comprised of 16 studies focused on activities at a range of colleges and universities across the country, these chapters aim to promote a better understanding of open learning practices across the Post-School Education and Training PSET sector including issues such as recognition of prior learning access for students with disabilities work integrated learning professional development novel student funding mechanisms leadership for open educational practices institutional culture student support blended and online learning flexible learning online assessment open educational resource development models and funding and micro credentials This collection of peer reviewed chapters contributes to understanding the ways in which South African PSET institutions and educators are interpreting open learning as a means of advancing social justice It includes a historical and contemporary understanding of the economic cultural and political obstacles facing PSET drawing on Nancy Fraser s theory of social justice as participatory parity to better understand the ways in which open learning may address systemic social injustices in order to allow South African students and educators to thrive This volume emerges from research conducted by the Cases on Open Learning COOL project an initiative by the Department of Higher Education and Training in partnership with the Centre for Innovation in Learning and Teaching CILT at the University of Cape Town UCT in South Africa

AIMING FOR THE STARS is a memoir of Dr Sphumelele Ndlovu and his life of hardship which led him to becoming a Scientist His mother sold chickens to provide for her children never considering himself worse off than others The family was poor Sphumelele s life was also derailed when strikes caused 24 out of the 28 teachers at his school to abandon their posts in his matric year Education was Ndlovu s ticket to a better future and he knew at a young age that he wasn t going to give it up without a fight Ndlovu s PhD placed him to be part of a team of scientists set out to measure the distance between the Earth and Moon using lasers It is the sixth ever such venture but the first to be carried out by an African team A man whose horizon was once confined to the perimeter of a chicken coop now handled tools that allowed his eyes to glide over galaxies

Your current relationship with money is essentially a reflection of your relationship with yourself Money although an intangible thing affects your heart Money doesn t have thoughts and emotions You have thoughts and emotions Money doesn t have beliefs and values You have beliefs and values Money doesn t have a character a personality or habits You have a character a personality and peculiar habits Building wealth starts with building you We all know what we should do with money 1 Spend less than you earn 2 Eliminate debt 3 Invest for our future These simple rules of money management seem impossible because most financial education ignores the head and heart connection We feel broken foolish and incompetent when we try to follow the rules but we can t seem to make it work We are unaware of the hidden barriers that live in our subconscious that are sabotaging our best efforts In this book Cheryl Benadie shares her wholeness approach to money management Relationships career and finances they are all interconnected Some of the topics explored in this book Decoding your unique money story and giving yourself permission to rewrite the script An invitation into the Hero s Journey where you embrace the real adventure happening in front of us every day A guide on crafting your purpose statement so that money management takes on new meaning Practical guides on creating a spending plan living with frugality and building daily habits that will help you achieve your financial targets and Keys that money masters use to integrate money management into their whole free full lives It s time to change your money story      Knowledge Beyond Colour Lines Monwabisi K. Ralarala, Salochana Lorraine Hassan, Rajani Naidoo, 2021-05-25 Knowledge remains timely in education The need for academics to contemplate its relevance worth use and everything in between deems a continuous intellectual project rather than a conundrum to be solved This book takes the South African context by the horns as it challenges the often dormant and traditionalist ways in which higher education spaces see knowledge Through original research and the voices of academics and students this book argues for repurposing knowledge generation knowledge sharing and critical pedagogy so that more inclusive teaching and learning environments can be both imagined and sustained The contentious tensions that this creates for LoLT and SoTL in particular are unlocked so as to trouble the South African higher education landscape with the intent to proffer alternative pathways for a knowledge beyond colour lines Prof Shan Simmonds PhD NWU This edited volume bristles with fresh scholarly approaches and insights of an emergent generation of engaged scholars grappling with the issues and problems of higher education in South Africa The issues dealt with here are varied and encompassing They are treated with intellectual delicacy and probing sensitivity articulating informed data and bold conclusions They serve well Prof Kwesi Kwaa Prah Emeritus Professor of Sociology University of the Western Cape Founder of the Centre for Advanced Studies of African Society      Positively Me Nozibele Mayaba, Sue Nyathi, 2024-05-08 My name is Nozibele Mayaba and I am HIV positive I am a devout Christian who did everything by the book worked hard got good marks found a steady job and helped to make life better for my family In our neighbourhood I was the girl other parents pointed to as a role model Until a few months before my diagnosis at age 22 I was a virgin Women like me don t get HIV But then I did It took me years to accept my new reality Speaking out freed me and completely changed my life Being HIV positive wasn t my first challenge and it won t be my last but it has been the hardest It also taught me an important lesson behind every statistic is a person with a name a family a story This is my story My name is Nozibele Mayaba I am HIV positive and I am still positively me An HIV positive diagnosis may no longer be a death sentence but it still changes everything In this frank vulnerable memoir as told to acclaimed writer Sue Nyathi activist and TV host Nozibele Mayaba talks about finding purpose when you think your life has come to an end

Black Tax Niq Mhlongo, 2019-09-12 The real significance of this book lies in the fact that it tells us more about the everyday life of black South Africans It delves into the essence of black family life and the secret anguish of family members who often battle to cope Niq Mhlongo A secret torment for some a proud responsibility for others black tax is a daily reality for thousands of black South Africans In this thought provoking and moving anthology a provocative range of voices share their deeply personal stories With the majority of black South Africans still living in poverty today many black middle class households are connected to working class or jobless homes Some believe supporting family members is an undeniable part of African culture and question whether it should even be labelled as a kind of tax Others point to the financial pressure it places on black students and professionals who as a consequence struggle to build their own wealth Many feel they are taking over what is essentially a government responsibility The contributions also investigate the historical roots of black tax the concept of the black family and the black middle class In giving voice to so many different perspectives Black Tax hopes to start a dialogue on this widespread social phenomenon

Responding to the Educational Needs of Post-school Youth Nico Cloete, 2009 The research reflected in this volume indicates that in South Africa there are almost three million youth between the ages of 18 and 24 who are not in education training or employment a situation which points not only to a grave wastage of talent but also to the possibility of serious social disruption The authors in this work paint a picture of the enormous reservoir of human talent which exists in the country but is not provided with the means to develop Responding to the Educational Needs of Post School Youth attempts not only to sketch the scope and extent of the current post school educational crisis but also to explore possible solutions through collaboration in the higher education sector The findings reported here are a result of three distinctive but linked research components conducted by the Further Education and Training Institute University of Western Cape the Centre for Higher Education Transformation and the Southern Africa Labour and Development Research Unit University of Cape Town The research was funded by the Ford Foundation and the project conducted in consultation with the Department of Education

Transformation in Higher Education Nico Cloete, Peter Maassen, Richard Fehnel, Teboho Moja, Trish Gibbon, Helene Perold, 2006-07-08 The book presents the most comprehensive and most thorough study of the developments in South African higher education and research after the first democratic elections of 1994 that is of post Apartheid South African higher education The benefits to the reader are that he she will get a detailed insight into the new i e post 1994 South African higher education system The large number of experienced authors and editors involved in the book guarantees that the reader will be introduced in the new SA higher education system from a large number of perspectives that are presented in a consistent and coherent way

Low-Income Students, Human Development and Higher Education in South Africa Melanie Walker, Monica McLean, 2022-07-15 This book explores learning outcomes for low income rural and township youth at five South African universities The book is framed as a contribution to southern and Africa centred scholarship adapting Amartya Sen s capability approach and a framework of key concepts capabilities functionings context conversion factors poverty and agency to investigate opportunities and obstacles to achieved student outcomes This approach allows a reimagining of inclusive learning outcomes to encompass the multi dimensional value of a university education and a plurality of valued cognitive and non cognitive outcomes for students from low income backgrounds whose experiences are strongly shaped by hardship Based on capability theorising and student voices the book proposes for policy and practice a set of contextual higher education capability domains and corresponding functionings orientated to more justice and more equality for each person to have the opportunities to be and to do what they have reason to value The book concludes that sufficient material resources are necessary to get into university and flourish while there the benefits of a university education should be rich and multi dimensional so that they can result in functionings in all areas of life as well as work and future study the inequalities and exclusion of the labour market and pathways to further study must be addressed by wider economic and social policies for inclusive learning outcomes to be meaningful and that universities ought to be doing more to enable black working class students to participate and succeed Low Income Students Human Development and Higher Education in South Africa makes an original contribution to capability scholarship conceptually in theorising a South based multi dimensional student well being higher education matrix and a rich reconceptualisation of learning outcomes as well as empirically by conducting rigorous longitudinal in depth mixed methods research on students lives and experiences in higher education in South Africa The audience for the book includes higher education researchers international capability scholars practitioners and policy makers

Entrepreneurship and Change Denis Hyams-Ssekasi, Fredrick Agboma, 2022-08-20 This book offers novel and contemporary thinking of entrepreneurship and change It espouses the distinct but reciprocal nature of both concepts to unravel high levels of transformation both in terms of social structures and social relations inherent in new venture creation It provides insights from a theoretical educational and industrial context with emphasis on holistic approaches to change Each chapter illuminates distinct elements of the entrepreneurial landscape and the importance of learning creativity and innovation as tools for practice and knowledge management This book is an essential resource for practitioners researchers and policy makers because it provides new outlooks and dimensions on the transformational powers of entrepreneurship and change
