

DIARY SAMPLE A

Tuesday 16th February

Dear Diary,

I can't even! The noise coming from the flat above is driving me crazy! I'm just trying to text my friends, but all I can hear is thumping and banging. It's so annoying, but I guess I've just gotten used to it living in these flats.

I can't help but wonder what they're doing up there. Are they practising for a marathon or what? It's like they're running a race every single day! And the music, oh my days! It's like having a DJ living right above my head!

I wish I could escape from this madhouse. It's like I'm trapped in a never-ending party that's not even mine! But hey, that's life in London, right? You either learn to love the chaos or it's bye-bye sanity.

Anyway, enough of my rambling. Gotta go and text the lads to see if they'll meet me online later, before the noise gets even worse.

Using Drama to Support Literacy John Goodwin, 2006-04-18 This book will be a welcome practical addition to the repertoires of teachers of children aged 7-11 who are looking for inspiration and relevance in their teaching of writing skills. Speaking English For the drama novice this is the book to buy. It reveals drama's power, maps the route to success and empowers the reader to follow. Literacy Time All activities are inspiring and imaginative and the written activities that follow them are varied and interesting. This book will prove useful especially in the upper primary and middle school English Drama Media. Using ideas and activities already tried and tested in the classroom, this book shows practitioners how imaginative drama lessons and activities can be used to help encourage and improve children's writing, speaking and listening skills. Perfect for the person who might not be used to leading drama-based activities, this book takes a step-by-step approach that will help even the most daunted teacher tackle drama with confidence. Also included are ideas for suitable writing and drama activities, advice on lesson planning, list of useful resources, examples of children's work and teachers' comments. Class teachers, teaching assistants, literacy consultants and drama and English co-ordinators looking for practical fun drama activities to support literacy will find all the help they need in this book. Mastery in Reading Comprehension Kala Williams, 2021-07-22 Make teaching reading comprehension simple, enjoyable and impactful with this proven mastery approach. Learn what works and why it works, take ownership of your teaching practice and meet the demands of the Key Stage 2 KS2 National Curriculum with outstanding results. This book provides many different strategies for teaching reading comprehension in a way that gives all pupils access to a rich variety of texts and boosts able readers' potential. Expert consultant and teacher Kala Williams uses clear explanations of the different mastery methods and why they work as well as easy-to-follow classroom strategies such as read-around-the-word and the processing chart that are accessible to all teachers. This book is the perfect guide for any primary teacher looking to solidify their reading comprehension practice and maximise their pupils' abilities. Teaching Personal, Social, Health and Economic and Relationships, (Sex) and Health Education in Primary Schools Victoria-Marie Pugh, Daniel Hughes, 2021-01-14 Personal, social, health and economic education (PSHE) and relationships, sex and health education (RSHE) are often undervalued in school and are frequently seen as an add-on. But when taught well, PSHE and RSHE can enhance not only other subjects but strengthen school safeguarding, develop pupil well-being and improve pupils' progress and resilience in learning. Underpinned by a range of contemporary research and illustrated through examples of classroom practice, the expert team of teacher educators look at a range of curriculum areas and contemporary issues to explore how PSHE and RSHE education can enhance other curriculum areas. As well as showing how pupils' life skills can be developed, they also explore how teachers' understanding of how PSHE and RSHE can be implemented without additional planning or expensive resources. The book takes an inclusive understanding of both diverse families and relationships throughout. Topics covered include social media, online presence and critical literacy skills, mental health coping strategies plastic reducing topical sensitive controversial issues TSCIs Covering the whole primary spectrum from Early Years to Key Stage 2 case studies from each phase are included within each chapter to help practitioners to relate the material to their own classroom Points to consider for your setting are included and guidance on further reading provides reliable direction for additional information     The School Librarian ,2003     JACT Review ,1999     100 Ways to Start a Diary Entry J.
