

The background is a dark, abstract composition featuring a network of thin, glowing lines in shades of blue, green, and yellow. These lines intersect to form various geometric shapes, including triangles and polygons. A prominent, bright yellow and orange glow emanates from the upper right quadrant, creating a sense of energy and light. The overall effect is a complex, digital-looking pattern that suggests a network or a futuristic environment.

Air Force Procurement: Aerial Refueling Tanker Protest Daniel I. Gordon, 2009-02 The Boeing Co protested the award of a contract to Northrop Grumman Systems Corp by the Dept of the Air Force for KC X aerial refueling tankers Boeing challenged the Air Force's technical and cost evaluations conduct of discussions and source selection decision Because Boeing competed for the contract it is an interested party for purposes of filing a protest Under the Competition in Contracting Act of 1984 the government is required to consider protests of contract awards filed by interested parties In deciding protests the Congress makes a determination of whether the agency's actions complied with procurement status and regulations Includes recommendations Charts and tables The Defense Industrial Base Nayantara D.

Hensel, 2016-03-03 The US and international defense industrial sectors have faced many challenges over the last twenty years including cycles of growth and shrinkage in defense budgets shifts in strategic defense priorities and macroeconomic volatility In the current environment the defense sector faces a combination of these challenges and must struggle with the need to maintain critical aspects of the defense industrial base as defense priorities change and as defense budgets reduce or plateau Moreover the defense sector in the US is interconnected both with defense sectors in other countries and with other industry sectors in the US and global economies As a result strategic decisions made in one defense sector impact the defense sectors of other countries as well as other areas of the economy Given her academic corporate and Department of Defense experience as a leading economist and policy maker Dr Nayantara Hensel is perfectly positioned to examine the interrelationship between these forces both historically and in the current environment and to assess the implications for the future global defense industrial base Government Contracting William Sims Curry, 2016-08-05 The second edition of Government Contracting Promises and Perils picks up where the first edition's mission left off exposing fraud incompetence waste and abuse FIWA and analyzing corruption mismanagement and ineptitude that defile government contracting The first edition thoroughly outlined procurement throughout the contracting cycle including initial planning contractor selection contract administration contract closeout and auditing This significantly revised new edition provides additional much needed guidance on contracting documents management tools and processes for addressing negative influences on government contracting including an improved approach to evaluating proposals Specific guidance for avoiding FIWA is provided for government officials and employees government agencies and government contractors and practical solutions to problems faced by individuals and organizations involved in government contracting are intended for both practitioner and pedagogical applications The Government Procurement Corruption Wall of Shame that was introduced in the first edition to illustrate contracting perils such as conflicts of interest duplicity favoritism incompetence kickbacks and protests is continued in the second edition and cases illustrating the existence of FIWA in government contracting have been thoroughly updated Contracting documents and contract management tools are provided on a website designed to accompany the book

Written at the graduate level and specifically intended for state local federal and international government procurement activities this textbook is required reading for public procurement contract management business and public administrations courses
