Barab, Kenneth E. Hay, Nancy Butler Songer, Daniel T. Hickey, 2017-09-05 William Wordsworth 1770 1850 needs little introduction as the central figure in Romantic poetry and a crucial influence in the development of poetry generally This broad ranging survey redefines the variety of his writing by showing how it incorporates contemporary concepts of language difference and the ways in which popular and serious literature were compared and distinguished during this period It discusses many of Wordsworth s later poems comparing his work with that of his regional contemporaries as well as major writers such as Scott The key theme of relationship both between characters within poems and between poet and reader is explored through Wordsworth s construction of community and his use of power relationships A serious discussion of the place of sexual feeling in his writing is also included Advanced Literacy Practices Evan Ortlieb, Earl H. Cheek Jr, 2013-01-28 Advanced Literacy Practices From the Clinic to the Classroom includes elements of designing literacy clinics models of reading and writing practices technology based instruction and frameworks for meeting the diverse needs of students Recommendations are provided in this research based practical guide for planning and instruction within litera

Handbook of Response to Intervention and Multi-Tiered Systems of Support Paige C. Pullen, Michael J. Kennedy, 2018-10-04 Of the many issues facing special education and general education today it is difficult to imagine one more important or timely than response to intervention RTI Almost overnight RTI has become standard practice across the nation Unfortunately RTI remains ill defined falls far short of its evidence based practice goal is almost invariably misused and often results in more harm than good Nevertheless as a conceptual framework RTI has great potential for ensuring that students with disabilities receive appropriate evidence based instruction The mission of this handbook is to present a comprehensive and integrated discussion of response to intervention RTI and its relation to multi tiered systems of support MTSS in both special education and general education Although the two terms are currently used interchangeably distinct differences exist between them Therefore chapters are dedicated to distinguishing the two concepts RTI and MTSS and describing each one s unique role in both general and special education In addition the authors recommend a third term Multi Tiered Instruction to differentiate the practices related to the purpose of the specific intervention Examining Young Learners: Research and Practice in Assessing the English of School-age Learners Szilvia Papp, Shelagh Rixon, 2018 The proposed book on child second language L2 development and assessment will be a state of the art account of what we currently know about how children learn L2s in formal contexts and how that knowledge impacts on the design development and evaluation of language assessment products for young learners The uniqueness of child L2 development within the classroom is highlighted by considering children s L2 needs typical patterns of development and the role of instruction and assessment in how children learn Common issues shared in child L2 acquisition studies language testing and educational assessment are explored by linking research carried out within the educational academic and testing communities Several case studies are described from different educational contexts around the world where teaching and assessment of young language learners takes place In particular the book presents the Cambridge English approach to assessing young learners of English and presents a framework for the development research and validation activities around the Cambridge English suite battery for children
