What is wrong with this picture That s the question Judith Warner asks after taking a good hard look at the world of modern motherhood at anxious women at work and at home and in bed with unhappy husbands When Warner had her first child she was living in Paris where parents routinely left their children home with state subsidized nannies When she returned to the States she was stunned by the cultural differences she found toward motherhood None of the mothers she met seemed happy Instead they worried about the possibility of not having the perfect child panicking as each developmental benchmark approached Combining close readings of mainstream magazines TV shows and pop culture with a thorough command of dominant ideas in recent psychological social and economic theory this book addresses our cultural assumptions and examines the forces that have shaped them
