Imagining the Human Condition in Medieval Rome Kristin B. Aavitsland, 2017-07-05 The first monograph on the Vita Humana cycle at Tre Fontane this book includes an overview of the medieval history of the Roman Cistercian abbey and its architecture as well as a consideration of the political and cultural standing of the abbey both within Papal Rome and within the Cistercian order Furthermore it considers the commission of the fresco cycle the circumstances of its making and its position within the art historical context of the Roman Duecento Examining the unusual blend of images in the Vita Humana cycle this study offers a more nuanced picture of the iconographic repertoire of medieval art Since the discovery of the frescoes in the 1960s the iconographic programme of the cycle has remained mysterious and an adequate analysis of the Vita Humana cycle as a whole has so far been lacking Kristin B Aavitsland covers this gap in the scholarship on Roman art circa 1300 and also presents the first interpretative discussion of the frescoes that is up to date with the architectural investigations undertaken in the monastery around 2000 Aavitsland proposes a rationale behind the conception of the fresco cycle thereby providing a key for understanding its iconography and shedding new light on thirteenth century Cistercian culture

The Music of Jōji Yuasa Luciana Galliano, 2012-03-15 Over the last fifty years the music of Jōji Yuasa has attained the zenith of international musical standards A study of this great Japanese composer is long overdue Persuasive and captivating less easy than that of his lifetime friend Toru Takemitsu Yuasa's music has also been a model for many young composers both from Japan and further afield thanks to the long period he spent teaching composition at the University of California San Diego 1981-1994 This book serves to illuminate aspects of Yuasa's work intricately linked to deep native roots which tend to be more opaque for western and other ears It focusses on various aspects of Yuasa's music as well as on the social anthropological aesthetic and critical contexts that have informed his compositional practice in the context of the postwar Japanese musical world In a continual interior dialogue which includes Jean Paul Sartre and Daisetz T Suzuki Matsuo Bash and William Faulkner Henry Miller and Motokiyo Zeami Yuasa s avant garde aesthetic project western in conception encounters the productive thought of an unambiguously Japanese aesthetic i e that of Zen An analysis of Yuasa s main works will illustrate and complete the picture of Yuasa s world Yuasa s works are placed at the centre of the most original of creative forces in the contemporary music world a place where for Yuasa in the same idea of creativity there has to be an avant garde component

The Cædmon Manuscript

Bernard J. Muir, 2023-09-12 The Cædmon Manuscript is one of three extant anthologies of English Christian poetry produced in England before 1000 CE. It is a collection of four religious poems in Old English based on Biblical materials. They have the editorial names Genesis, Exodus, Daniel and Christ, and Satan. This edition consists of an Introduction, Bibliography, Codicological and Paleographical Analysis, an Art Historical Commentary, and an edition of the four poems. Between Islam and Byzantium

Lynn Jones, 2017-03-02 Between Islam and Byzantium provides the first complete analysis of the development of the visual expression of medieval Armenian rulership during the years 884-1045 CE. During this period the Armenian rulers had loosened the ties that subjected them to the Arab caliphate, but by its end the Byzantine empire had instead become dominant in the region. The influences exerted by these external opposing powers are a major theme in this book. Lynn Jones re-contextualizes the existing royal art and architecture by integrating analyses of contemporary accounts of ceremonial and royal deeds with fresh examinations of the surviving monuments of which the church at Aghtamar, with its famous carvings, is the prime example. Setting the art and architecture of the period more clearly in its original context, the author reveals the messages these buildings, sculptures, and manuscripts were intended to convey by those who created and viewed them. This study provides a new perspective on the complex interactions between a broad range of nationalities, ethnicities, and religions, shedding fresh light on the nature of medieval identity. It adds to a growing literature on the eastern neighbours of Byzantium and opens up new issues on the relationship between the Byzantine empire and the Islamic caliphate in the medieval period.

The Creation of Eve and Renaissance Naturalism Jack M. Greenstein, 2016-08-23. Depicting the Creation of Woman presented a special problem for Renaissance artists. The medieval iconography of Eve rising half-formed from Adam's side was hardly compatible with their commitment to the naturalistic representation of the human figure. At the same time, the story of God constructing the first woman from a rib did not offer the kind of dignified, affective pictorial narrative that artists, patrons, and the public prized. Jack M. Greenstein takes this artistic problem as the point of departure for an iconographic study of this central theme of Christian culture. His book shows how the meaning changed along with the form when Lorenzo Ghiberti, Andrea Pisano, and other Italian sculptors of the fourteenth and fifteenth centuries revised the traditional composition to accommodate a naturalistically depicted Eve. At stake, Greenstein argues, is the role of the artist and the power of image-making in reshaping Renaissance culture and religious thought.
