Building electrification maintenance of electrical control systems of home appliances or another kind of repairing job. Electricians install domestic wiring and control electrical equipment through which electricity flows. They also install and maintain electrical equipment and machines in factories and a wide range of other businesses related to electrical. Electricians generally focus on either construction or maintenance although many of them do both. An electrician is a tradesperson specializing in electrical wiring of buildings stationary machines and related equipment. Electricians may be employed in the installation of new electrical components or the maintenance and repair of existing electrical infrastructure. They join an electrician apprenticeship program sponsored by the International Brotherhood of Electrical Workers (IBEW) National Electrical Contractors Association (NECA) Independent Electrical Contractors (IEC) or Industrial Training Institute (ITI) as electricians through a Government Institution. These programs include both classroom courses and on-the-job training and take about 2-4 years to complete. Construction electricians read blueprints of circuit diagrams install wiring and electrical controls in residential or commercial buildings and follow the state and local building regulations. They might also dictate and train workers who are learning the skills It is a practical guide for ITI apprentices preparing for service interview or already employed Electricians may be employed in the installation of new electrical components machines and equipment or the maintenance and repair of existing electrical infrastructure All electricians should expect to maintain current knowledge of the National Electric Code throughout their careers Additional training may also be required to cover specific topics that apply to individual branches of the electrical trade     Popular Mechanics ,1991-01 Popular Mechanics inspires instructs and influences readers to help them master the modern world Whether it s practical DIY home improvement tips gadgets and digital technology information on the newest cars or the latest breakthroughs in science PM is the ultimate guide to our high tech lifestyle     Monthly Catalog of United States Government Publications ,1996-07     Electroplating & Metal Finishing ,1959 Issues for Jan 1954 Aug 1955 include a section Metal finishing abstracts later issued separately     Patterson's American Educational Directory Homer L.
