Integrative Neurology: Hope and Help for People Suffering from Peripheral Neuropathy George Kukurin DC
Dacan, 2009-04-01 Neuropathy is one of the most common diseases of the nervous system. It affects millions of people. Despite the fact that neuropathy is a common and devastating disease, few effective treatments are available for the neuropathy patient. New treatment ideas in the form of integrative neurology, a combination of traditional medical and alternative medical thought, are offering the first real hope for neuropathy patients in years. Techniques like acupuncture, a two thousand year old therapy, state of the art methods such as non-invasive brain neuromodulation and low level laser therapy are discussed. Current medications now available for the treatment of neuropathy offer only symptomatic relief for neuropathy patients; however, many of the therapies included in this book may actually promote nerve regeneration. This book includes a multitude of alternative medicine treatments for neuropathy that are supported by over 330 scientific references. It is hope and help for neuropathy patients.

Daily Prayer for All Seasons [English Edition] The Standing Commission on Liturgy Music, 2014-08
For all who are interested in the daily office and praying the hours. People in all kinds of religious traditions including Judaism and Christianity have been marking time with prayer for almost as long as we've divided the day into hours. Praying the hours, as it's called, has always reminded us that God walks with us throughout each day. Praying the hours is also a way that the community of faith comes together, whether we're united all in one place or scattered like raindrops. In the Episcopal Church, the Book of Common Prayer offers beautiful services for morning, noon, evening, and nighttime in a section called The Daily Office, pp. 35-146. Daily Prayer for All Seasons offers a variation on that theme where a complete service covers one or two pages, thereby eliminating the need to shuffle prayer books and hymnals. Daily Prayer for All Seasons works for individuals, small groups, and/or congregations. This prayer book presents a variety of images of God, uses inclusive and expansive language for and about God, and presents a rich variety of language including poetry, meditation, and prayers from the broader community of faith.

Praat & Scripting (English Version) Kyuchul Yoon, Ph.D. & Professor,2022-09-01 Praat scripting is like cooking This book deals with everything about Praat The author however does not know everything about it The more you know the more you see as the old saying goes I wrote it to the best of my knowledge During the long years with Praat I've written many scripts and given many talks and presentations I collected them all here in this book I'd be very happy if researchers from a variety of majors could get help Any errors or mistakes are mine so please let me know This book is just a beginning A lot of room for improvement I admit Since I didn't write it at one sitting it could be more organized and focused Let me know via my contact so that I can supplement this book Writing about Praat and scripts I felt that scripting is like cooking a luxury cuisine Input files are like good ingredients variables and objects are like containers such as dishes and plates functions and operators are like cooking utensils cooking is like running script commands and finished cuisine is like output files It could be difficult and boring to beginners but I tried to be as easy and fun as possible It's a thick book but reading from time to time you could become a scripting expert in no time and feel the joy just like finishing a delicious cuisine I hope that what's in this book would satisfy advanced learners as well as beginners For beginners I tried to introduce basic techniques of making a recording and doing analyses and resynthesis e.g. manipulating pitch and durations For advanced learners I tried my best to introduce the basics and advanced topics of Praat scripting with real scripts from my own papers and works and to explain how scripting can help you with your various linguistic works Lastly I introduce how you can extract various linguistic information from speech corpora e.g. the Buckeye corpus and Seoul corpus using Praat and scripting Particularly I open to the public the scripts I used to build the Seoul corpus which I hope will help you understand that scripting can help you work with a speech corpus This book is for people who know the least about computers such as launching an installed application and handling files in their computer Don't worry however you're not good at computers I tried to be as kind as possible as if I'm dealing with beginners Most operating systems are largely divided into Windows and Macs I wrote this book on my MacOS machine but I also added descriptions for Windows systems Also I assume that readers have the basic knowledge on phonetics e.g. a sound file being displayed on a spectrogram as well as on a waveform display For professional knowledge consult books on phonetics Nonetheless I use some professional terms necessary for our readers to perform tasks related to phonetics and linguistics in general The book is organized as three parts Part A Praat Basics teaches you the basics of Praat and scripts Part B Praat Advanced encourages you to start writing scripts based on what you learned earlier with sample and real scripts Part C Praat for Corpus has two areas Area 1 introduces the Buckeye corpus and Area 2 the Seoul corpus You learn that Praat and scripts can be useful in your research with speech corpora So much for the official stuff Now what I'd really liked to say to readers Software such as Praat may be easy for engineering students or people familiar with computers Those of you who know one or two programming languages may think Praat scripting is a piece of cake A couple of days or weeks later you'd write basic and advanced scripts A couple of months you could lead a big project like building a speech corpus However this book is not for those computer experts Rather the book is for those not familiar with computers and afraid of coding or scripting If you think Is scripting worth my precious time I would rather ask some Praat expert I know to do this job for me I give up this topic Let's find another topic this book is for you I told some of my friends that I would some day write this book so that ordinary people could write a basic script After reading this book and if you still cannot write a simple script it means my book is not doing what it's meant for I'd have to keep improving it until it does I kept my end of the bargain so it's your readers' turn I plan to revise this book to its 2nd version 3rd version and so on As Rome was not built in a day I'll be waiting for your feedbacks I've used Praat and scripts for a long time but as I said I do not know everything about them It's not why I wrote this book either Rather I wrote this book to tell you among the huge number of wonderful features of Praat which ones are frequently used in works related to phonetics speech synthesis and linguistics in general The features not frequently used and I know little about I did not even mention them For beginners I think it's equally important to know even the basic features and use them well Not all the features of Praat are equally important and are equally used frequently I intended to introduce to readers the most frequent and necessary features of Praat so that they understand the relative importance of all the features and can use them in their daily research works My job is to let them enter the wonderful world of Praat Once you get in sit tight and enjoy your ride A single step toward a journey of a thousand miles 2021-02-28 Kyuchul Yoon Ph.D Professor in Phonetics A New English Translation of the Septuagint Albert Pietersma, Benjamin G. Death Liturgy and Ritual Paul P.J. Sheppy,2017-07-05 Death Liturgy and Ritual is a two volume study of Christian funerary theology and practice presenting an invaluable account of funeral rites and the central issues involved for compilers and users Paul Sheppy writes from direct experience of conducting funerals and of drafting liturgical resources for others In Volume II A Commentary on Liturgical Texts reviews a wide range of current Christian funeral rites and examines how they reflect both the Church s concern for the death and resurrection of Christ and the contemporary secular demand for funerals which celebrate the life of the deceased The companion volume Volume I A Pastoral and Liturgical Theology proposes that the Church ought to construct its theological agenda in dialogue with other fields of study Sheppy argues for a Christian statement about death that finds its basis in the Paschal Mystery since human death must be explained by reference to Jesus death descent to the dead and resurrection Using the three phases of van Gennep s theory of rites of passage the author shows how the Easter triduum may be seen as normative for Christian liturgies of death

An Enduring Journey of Hope Ya-chi Yuan,2023-10-01 Africa is big and so are its problems In their midst people are so small There is light on the land The light travels in people s minds and on the land The light takes root in Africa The Danger of a Single Story The Nigerian novelist Chimamanda Ngozi Adichie once gave a TED talk on The danger of a single story She stated something to the effect that Stories are important but to diversify the story is even more important Indeed many people associate Africa with poverty famine and disease an impression that they might have learned from a single story Although partially true this impression is inadequate at best especially in the context of charity work That impression seems to have a way of morphing into stereotypes or labels with which the outside world associates with Africa Ironically such labels are welcome in some African communities because being labeled poor they get more external assistance for free As they get used to receiving aid they even begin to believe those labels They unknowingly and slowly lose the memories of their gifted toughness When Africans get used to getting freebies from the outside world they believe those labels are indeed accurate This loss of self is a more serious problem than the problem on the label Yet something gratifying has happened in Africa The COVID 19 pandemic started to sweep across the world in 2020 Many people predicted that the poor would become poorer the hungry hungrier and charitable aid would be more difficult to get through lock down barriers to reach the needy But our local volunteers in Durban South Africa started vegetable gardens and enthusiastically shared their harvests with needy people around them The pandemic made it clear that they must step up their efforts to cultivate in their own communities the ideal of neighbors helping neighbors so the community collectively would be more able to face the next disaster In 2020 our volunteers developed more than 130 vegetable gardens in Durban and residents in surrounding communities started more than 500 vegetable gardens Vegetable garden became so popular that even recipients of Tzu Chi aid had asked for vegetable seeds instead of rice During the pandemic international travel was second to impossible That made it very difficult for our Durban volunteers to travel to Eswatini to conduct any aid operation Our local Eswatini volunteers stepped up and provided hot meals to poor children in their community every weekend Namibian volunteers rebuilt corrugated metal shacks for the homeless Malawian volunteers raised money to buy fabrics to sew masks and gave them to the elderly in their community Zambiaian volunteers paddled canoes after the flooding to provide aid to poverty stricken villages All of these volunteers did not wait for the arrival of foreign aid Instead they have all proved that they have what it takes to handle any challenge that may come their way I have been fortunate to have worked with those volunteers in Africa for many years with a common ideal to purify people s hearts The stories here may help the readers to have a glimpse of their transformation from hopeless aid recipients to hopeful and helpful volunteers who pay it forward Together we have overcome numerous obstacles They continue to help their own countrymen and leave many touching and true stories which may help the world get a more comprehensive understanding of Africa I hope that through our efforts more people will be able to join together to help others so that Africa will get better As Chimamanda also said When we realize that there is never a single story about any place we will regain a kind of paradise I sincerely hope that one day the world will associate Africa with confidence and warmth I believe that the glimmer of hope in Africa will be brighter The story continues
