Thomas and Ellen Lindstrom had both had a long life. Mary wrote the eulogistic, somewhat sentimental obituary for Thomas' death. Both had several children, and the obituary reflects on how much of a good student they were, giving no hint of how they had been so remarkably able. The language used in the obituary is very dignified, like the obituary for the woman whose obituary I have just read. The obituary for Thomas' daughter, Ellen, was a little different. Ellen was also an excellent student, but the obituary seems to read like a letter.
