In the course of this study I have received assistance from many individuals. Staff members at several libraries and archives were helpful as well as willing in locating many sources. Especially important for this project were the New York Public Library, the county clerk's office in the Hall of Records, the New York State Library in Albany, and the Rockefeller Archives in Pocantico Hills. Individuals at other institutions also were very helpful: Robert Mendenhall, director, and Margarita Lynn and Terry Ariani of the Museum of the City of New York; Dale Neighbors, Patricia Robinson, and Dana Benson of the New York Historical Society; Evelyn Damages and Kenneth Cole of the New York Municipal Archives; and Carol Otto, trustee, and George Barnhill of the American Antiquarian Society. Kaye Anne Burstein, Channing Fagan, and the wonderful staff at the Sarah Lawrence Library offered not only assistance but also a place to work and support as my project progressed.

Other individuals have contributed to this study in measurable and immeasurable ways. Early in my research I met Christine Maxwell at the Hall of Records. She shared with me chapters of the dissertation she was finishing and names of other scholars who might be helpful, and she told me about the rich resource in the House of Refuge records. I have found her generosity as well as her historical scholarship outstanding. I profited from comments by members of Roundtable, before whom I presented a portion of the manuscript. Dana Dineen spent many hours turning positively focused photographic negatives of crumbling newspapers into prints from which I could work. My nephew, Ben Fadden, took care of my children and nephew while I did research. Dr. George Linn provided resource materials and advice on medical issues and also proofread one chapter of the study. The partners and staff of First Reserve Corporation generously and patiently shared work space as well as word-processing and photographing equipment through several stages of my writing. Betty Duff-Greene spent many days and many late hours typing and photographing the various drafts of the manuscript and, with the help of Dorothy Muthala and Lisa Williams, we finally produced a finished copy. Contributions of a more indirect nature came from several close friends and members of my family, who offered constant encouragement and were willing to forge paths and creations together.
