The Social Semiotics of Populism Sebastián Moreno

Barreneche, 2023-01-26 The concept of populism is currently used by scholars the media and political actors to refer to multiple and disparate manifestations and phenomena from across both the left and the right ends of the political spectrum As a result it defies neat definition as scholarship on the topic has shown over the last 50 years In this book Sebastián Moreno Barreneche approaches populism from a semiotic perspective and argues that it constitutes a specific social discourse grounded on a distinctive narrative structure that is brought to life by political actors that are labelled populist Conceiving of populism as a mode of semiotic production that is based on a conception of the social space as divided into two groups the People and the Other this book uses semiotic theory to make sense of this political phenomenon Exploring how the categories of the People and the Other are discursively constructed by populist political actors through the use of semiotic resources the ways in which meaning emerges through the oppositions between imagined collective actors is explained Drawing on examples from Europe North America and South America The Social Semiotics of Populism presents a systematic semiotic approach to this multifaceted political concept and bridges semiotic theory and populism studies in an original manner

Environmental Awareness in Preschool Children's Drawings Mohamed Mlile, Mohammed Larouz, Diego Luis Forte, Huda Fadhil Halawachy, Handoko Handoko, Clara D.S. Vande-Guma, 2024-05-28 This edited volume investigates multiple perspectives of environmental meaning making among children by evaluating preschool children's drawings on the environment It critically traces the formation of early attitudes towards the environment before children's exposure to formal environmental education Similarities and differences are explored among preschool children's drawings across diverse cultural and geographic backgrounds Over five sections covering Morocco Indonesia Nigeria Iraq and Argentina each one examines the factors affecting children's environmental drawings such as age gender and geography Using different theoretical frameworks the chapters are written by researchers of environmental discourse and ecolinguistics with a background knowledge in environmental studies from a social science perspective This book is of interest to researchers interested in ecolinguistics and socio semiotics fields of study This seminal book also paves the way for further research on preschool environmental education

Television and the Self Kathleen M. Ryan, Deborah A. Macey, 2013-04-05 Sitting prominently at the hearth of our homes television serves as a voice of our modern time Given our media saturated society and television's prominent voice and place in the home it is likely we learn about our society and selves through these stories These narratives are not simply entertainment but powerful socializing agents that shape and reflect the world and our role in it Television and the Self Knowledge Identity and Media Representation brings together a diverse group of scholars to investigate the role television plays in shaping our understanding of self and family This edited collection's rich and diverse research demonstrates how television plays an important role in negotiating self and goes far beyond the treacly very special episodes found in family sitcoms in the 1980s Instead the authors show how television reflects our reality and helps us to sort out what it means to be a twenty first century man or woman

Images in Use Matteo Stocchetti, Karin Kukkonen, 2011 Conceptualising images as images in use this title considers the agencies behind visual communication and its impact on society It engages critically with traditional approaches to visual analysis socially situated analyses of images and demonstrates the explanatory force of thinking through images in use in a series of case studies
