Multi-Carrier Spread-Spectrum Khaled Fazel, S. Kaiser, 2013-11-11 The benefits and success of multi carrier MC modulation on one side and the flexibility offered by the spread spectrum SS technique on the other side have motivated many researchers to investigate the combination of both techniques since 1993 This combination known as multi carrier spread spectrum MC SS benefits from the advantages of both systems and offers high flexibility high spectral efficiency simple detection strategies narrow band interference rejection capability etc The basic principle of this combination is straightforward The spreading is performed as direct sequence spread spectrum DS SS but instead of transmitting the chips over a single carrier several sub carriers are employed The MC modulation and demodulation can easily be realized in the digital domain by performing IFFT and FFT operations The separation of the users signals can be performed in the code domain MC SS systems can perform the spreading in frequency direction which allows for simple signal detection strategies Since 1993 MC SS has been deeply studied and new alternative solutions have been proposed Meanwhile deep system analysis and comparison with DS CDMA have been performed that show the superiority of MC CDMA Pesticides Documentation Bulletin ,1967-10 The Struggle for Democratic Politics in the Dominican

Development of School Leaders in Africa Pontso Moorosi,Tony Bush,2019-11-28 The book is based on African research and reviews on school leadership preparation and development taking stock of where the field is in this geographical region and what lies ahead The exclusive focus on sub Saharan African countries is driven by the desire to foreground African experiences highlighting gaps and asking critical questions about contextually relevant models of leadership that can drive towards improved educational outcomes for African children The countries explored include Botswana Cameroon Ghana Kenya Lesotho Namibia Nigeria South Africa and Tanzania Written by a collective of seasoned researchers with extensive experience in the field and on the continent this volume is timely as the field is in need of serious political attention For these reasons the book is an important resource for policy makers school leaders and other practitioners students educators of school leadership preparation programmes as well as researchers in the field on the continent and the diaspora

BOLESWA Conference ,2000 Weaving a Malawi Sunrise Roberta Laurie,2015-10-20 One woman s determination to educate Malawian girls and change the future of a nation Individual Criminal Responsibility for Core International Crimes Ciara Damgaard,2008-08-02 1 1 Opening Remarks and Objectives Crimes against international law are committed by men not by abstract entities and only by punishing individuals who commit such crimes can the provisions of international law 2 be enforced This is perhaps the most renowned citation from the judgment of the Int national Military Tribunal at Nuremberg IMT In the six decades which have passed since the IMT judgment was handed down the recognition of the c cept of individual criminal responsibility for core international crimes has been significantly reinforced and developed particularly since the establishment of the International Criminal Tribunal for the Former Yugoslavia ICTY and the International Criminal Tribunal for Rwanda ICTR in the 1990 s and most recently the International Criminal Court ICC The media has of course played a crucial role in increasing awareness of this concept especially amongst the general populace Indeed the concept has arguably a much higher profile today than ever before in its history However the concept of individual criminal responsibility for core international crimes is neither as straightforward nor as single faceted as might appear on first glance While the general principle behind the concept does not generate too many difficulties it is in its practical application that the more challenging aspects of the concept are brought to the fore Each of these challenging aspects can also be described as a pertinent issue of the concept of individual criminal responsibility for core international crimes

Nicola Swainson,1997 This report presents research findings about the intellectual political and organizational processes that have shaped government and donor policies and projects concerned with promoting the education of women and girls in Malawi Tanzania and Zimbabwe The study seeks to assess the extent to which gender interventions in education have been donor driven The growing concern about large and persistent gender inequalities in education has led to the development of a number of initiatives on the part of multilateral and bilateral aid agencies aimed at encouraging the participation of women and girls in education Despite this concern efforts to reduce gender inequalities on the part of both governments and donor agencies have been uneven and policy interventions have evolved in a piecemeal fashion In order to explore the reasons for the limited progress that has been made in improving girls education in most developing countries this study focuses on policy formulation and implementation with respect to girls education in the three low income African countries Contains approximately 180 references BT Secondary School Double Shift Pilot Programme ,1996 Keesing's Record of World Events ,1994 Managerial and Technical Motivation Michael J. Stahl,1986-04-22 One of the most widely accepted theories of motivation is a trichotomy of needs theory popularized by David C McClelland of Harvard University Many organizational behavior textbooks today discuss McClelland s need for achievement need for affiliation and need for power The three needs have been found to possess predictive power in a wide variety of settings particularly organizational ones Impressed by the ability of the three needs to explain behavior but aware of the measurement problems associated with the Thematic Apperception Test which is used to assess these needs the author searched for an alternative measurement approach This book reports on those design efforts validation of the instrument and use of the instrument in organizational settings International Handbook of Education Systems John Cameron,1983
