

A woman with brown hair, wearing a grey jacket and a red scarf, is shown in a close-up, looking upwards with a determined expression. She is holding a sign that says "COUNT EVERY VOTE" in blue capital letters. In the background, another person wearing a green beanie is visible, also holding a sign. The overall scene suggests a political demonstration or protest.

How do you convince someone to agree with you? What persuasive elements are required to elicit compliance? This interactive accessible approach looks at principles of persuasion as they apply to everyday lives. Framing persuasion from an intrapersonal and interpersonal perspective captures reader interest and makes the subtlety of social influence understandable. The importance of building and maintaining personal credibility is reinforced throughout the text. Ethical issues are raised as persuasive strategies are discussed. Clear practical suggestions for effective persuasion are presented in an engaging fashion and encourage the application of meaningful insights for stronger interpersonal relationships. Learning the skills that motivate people to change behavior vastly improves the reader's ability to persuade others effectively. The discussion also facilitates critical thinking for recipients of persuasive messages. Practical Principles of Persuasion is ideal for classroom or online learning because of its concise lessons and interactive approach. The workbook provides a solid foundation for the key concepts and practices of persuasive communication.

ABOUT THIS BOOK: This book is a public domain ebook enriched with new content that delves into the life and teachings of the original author. The additional material serves as an insightful expansion designed to provide readers with a deeper understanding of the context surrounding the author's work. By incorporating details about the author's life and the philosophical underpinnings of their teachings, this enhanced edition offers a comprehensive exploration that goes beyond the original text. Readers are invited to engage with a more comprehensive narrative, gaining not only knowledge of the author's literary contributions but also a nuanced perspective on the factors that influenced their work.

ABOUT NEVILLE GODDARD: Neville Goddard was a mystic and spiritual teacher who lived from 1905 to 1972. He was born in Barbados and later moved to New York City where he began to study spiritual and mystical teachings. He also studied the work of psychologists such as Sigmund Freud and Carl Jung. Goddard's main teachings focus on the power of the imagination to create one's reality. He believed that everything in our lives, from our circumstances to our health, is a result of our imaginal acts. He taught that by changing our thoughts and beliefs, we can change our lives and manifest our desires.
