Kearns, 2014-10-03 Garda and guardian Protector and punisher This is Lugs Branigan the man the legend The story of Lugs Branigan is a tale that is long overdue It is a story of extraordinary courage and compassion a story of heroism and altruism a story of crime punishment and redemption The legend of Lugs's career as Ireland's most famous garda police officer founded on his physical strength and the manner in which he faced up to the criminal gangs of Dublin over the course of fifty years is part of Dublin's folk history In The Legendary Lugs Branigan bestselling historian Kevin C. Kearns presents a revealing and unvarnished portrait of the man and his life authenticated by the oral testimony of family members friends and Garda mates who stood with him through the most harrowing and poignant experiences Born in the Liberties of Dublin in 1910 Jim Branigan was by his own admission a shy scrawny sissy as a lad Cruelly beaten by bullies in the railway yard where he worked during his teens he refused to fight back Yet he went on to become a heavyweight boxing champion and to earn the undisputed reputation as the country's toughest and bravest garda Chief Superintendent Edmund Doherty proclaimed him one of those people who become a legend in his own time As a garda he refused to carry a baton relying upon his fists He took on the vicious animal gangs of the 1930s and 40s and in the Battle of Baldoyle broke their reign of terror In the 1950s he quelled the wild rock and roll riots and tamed the ruffian Teddy boys with their flick knives All the while he was dealing with Dublin's full array of gurrriers and criminals As a devotee of American Western films and books Branigan emulated the sheriffs by doling out his unique showdown brand of summary justice to hooligans and thugs on the street In the 1960s his riot squad with its Garda posse patrolled Dublin's roughest districts in their black Maria They contended with the most dangerous rows and riots in the streets dancehalls and pubs The cry Lugs is here could instantly scatter a disorderly crowd Ironically for all his fame as a tough fearless garda he was most beloved for his humanity and compassion His role as guardian of the battered women of the tenements and as protector and father figure of the city's piteous prostitutes or pavement hostesses as he called them was unrecorded in the press and hushed up by the Garda brass Yet Garda John Collins vouches Women oh he was God to them Upon retirement he entered his old gunfighter years ageing and vulnerable he became a target for old foes bent on revenge and for young guns seeking a quick reputation A man with a reputation powerful enough to echo through generations of Dubliners the legendary Lugs Branigan finally has a book worthy of his story A Place Called Home Alice Taylor, 2024-10-14 In fact two places called home For over sixty years Alice Taylor has lived in the village of Innishannon the gateway to West Cork But her childhood was spent on a farm in North Cork near the Kerry border and her memories of that homeplace are vivid Here she recalls the sounds and smells of the farmyard now silent she visits her old national school today in ruins and her secondary which has a new life as a cultural centre She also writes of day to day life in her beloved Innishannon With her trademark wit and wisdom Alice takes us on a ramble around both of her homes celebrating the places the people and the special moments that have stayed in her heart over the years The Reporter's Tale Tom Davies, 2009-10 The Reporter's Tale is an adventure story about Tom Davies a young Welsh writer who travels the world looking for the truth and in a few days of blistering revelation in Malaya finds it in a series of visions Thereafter he takes his new insights on a journey through the media becoming a reporter for top Sunday newspapers and later an award winning author of many books and realising he has a fresh understanding of the causes of the violence which is so blighting the modern world His odyssey of discovery begins in Northern Ireland at the height of the Troubles where he finds that the media with its persistent pursuit of violence is the cause of much of the disorder there The global media which specialises in reporting the worst of everything from everywhere has become the mother and father of modern terrorism he says giving the IRA disproportionate power and importance merely because they offer violence Television in particular is the catalyst for the growing disorder in our streets becoming the very leader of street riot while also giving motive and reward to suicide bombers The many revolutions of the Arab Spring are fully explained by his visions he shows Here the world s media first began feeding on the self immolation of a Tunisian trader before spawning revolution after revolution in neighbouring countries They all wanted freedom and democracy we were told but all that seemed to be happening was that they were deranged by watching too much television news as each service particularly Al Jazeera spooled out violent imagery on an almost twenty four hour loop mostly from footage downloaded from their viewers mobile phones All outlets of the media have come together and conspired to set loose a tide of evil which is turning violence into the very oxygen we are all now breathing Davies shows in this book which may well be the most powerful and trenchant attack ever mounted on the tyranny of the modern media

The novel begins with Richard Papen, a bright but troubled young man, arriving at Hampden College. Richard is immediately drawn to the group of students who call themselves the Classics Club. The club is led by Henry Winter, a brilliant and charismatic young man. Henry is obsessed with Greek mythology and philosophy, and he quickly draws Richard into his world. The other members of the Classics Club are equally as fascinating. Bunny Corcoran is a wealthy and spoiled young man who is always looking for a good time. Charles Tavis is a quiet and reserved young man who is deeply in love with Henry. Camilla Macaulay is a beautiful and intelligent young woman who is drawn to the power and danger of the Classics Club. The students are all deeply in love with Morrow, and they are willing to do anything to please him. Morrow is a complex and mysterious figure, and he seems to be manipulating the students for his own purposes. As the students become more involved with Morrow, they begin to commit increasingly dangerous acts. The Secret History is a brilliant and gripping novel that will keep you guessing until the very end. The novel is a cautionary tale about the dangers of obsession and the power of evil.
