

My Best Friend

Good friends and good neighbours both are the blessing of God. Friendship is a sacred trust and neighbourhood is a sacred responsibility. A good friend and a good neighbour both remain very close during the ups and downs of life. I am very lucky that I have a sincere friend who is not only my best friend but also my next-door neighbour. Both me and my friend are true and sincere to each other from our childhood. Since we are neighbours therefore our families have also very good friendly relations. My friend has a charming personality and possesses a brilliant mind. My friend has a quality to attract others. He/she speaks very politely and knows the manners of good speaking. He/She knows the art of winning the hearts of others. He/She always remain ready to help others. He/She not only good in studies but also takes interest in games, music, plays and speeches. He/She always comes first in the class
