Keeping Pace Laurie Morrison, 2024-04-09 Laurie

Morrison's Keeping Pace is a poignant middle grade novel about friends turned rivals training for a half marathon and rethinking what it means to win and what they mean to each other. Grace has been working for years to beat her former friend Jonah Perkins's GPA so she can be named top scholar of the eighth grade. But when Jonah beats her for the title, it feels like none of Grace's academic accomplishments have really mattered. They weren't enough to win or to impress her dad. And then the wide empty summer looms. With nothing planned and no more goals or checklists, she doesn't know what she's supposed to be working toward. Eager for something to occupy her days, Grace signs up for a half marathon race that she and Jonah used to talk about running together. Jonah's running it, too. Maybe if she can beat Jonah on race day, she'll feel OK again. But as she begins training with Jonah and checking off a new list of summer goals, she starts to question what and who really matters to her. Is winning at all costs really worth it?

Engaging and heartfelt Keeping Pace is about wanting to win at all costs and having to learn how to fail. A Whole New World: The Gospel of Matthew John Blackwell, 2011-03-31 Providing penetrating insights into the world of transformation, A Whole New World will revolutionize your understanding of the presence of God. How do we become righteous? How does the ability to do the right thing at the right time become a habit? How does life become fulfilling? These are the questions that John Blackwell answers in A Whole New World: The Gospel of Matthew. This book will give you the keys to unlock Matthew's insight into the ways in which the power by which God raised Christ from the dead works in our lives to transform us. Your insight into Christ will be richer, more robust, more vital, and more authentic. You will discover how Christ makes us fully human. You will be able to recognize the presence of the power of God in our world, right here, right now.
